FRANCE.

TERRIBLE FIRE.

VERSAILLES, May 22.—Advices from Paris report a terrible fire of cannon and musketry since day break this morning in the direction of Montmartre.

COMPLETE.

The isolation of Paris by the Prussians is now complete.

DOMBROWSKI.

Dombrowski was wounded, and he endeavored to make his escape from the Versaillists troops, but was prevented by the Prussians.

ENTHUSIASM.

The enthusiasm among the population is immense.

MAYOR'S MEETING.

The Mayors of Paris assemble at Chateau Muette to-day.

REORGANIZING.

Battalions of friends of order are reorganizing.

THE VERSAILLISTS OCCUPATION.

The Versaillists have occupied Place de Clichy at the junction of the Boulevards, Des Batignalles and Clichy, on the very verge of Montmartre; also St. Lazare, a station on the Western Railway, Place d'Industrie, the Chamber of the Corps Legislatif, and the Hotel Des Invalides.

THE PRUSSIANS.

The insurgents make no attempt to break the Prussian's line of encirclement. The Prussian troops have been ordered to open fire on the insurgents if they approached within four hundred paces.

SHARP FIGHTING.

There was sharp fighting at the barricade in the Place De La Concorde and the Place De Clichy.

SLACKENED.

The cannonade slackened at ten o'clock this morning.

SAINT OUEN.

The Versailles troops occupied Saint Ouen

PARIS COMPLETEY OCCUPIED.

OUTSIDE OF PARIS, May 23.—Noon.—The Versailles flag is now floating over Mont Martre. The whole of the city is evidently in possession of the forces of the Assembly.

MORE FROM PARIS.

LONDON, May 23.—A dispatch from Versailles on Monday evening says that the Versailles troops have occupied the station of the Versailles Railway on Boulevard de Montpanasse, which is within a short distance of the Luxembourg, and that General Clinetop has turned the insurgent position at the Tuilleries and made eight to ten thousand prisoners.

Later dispatches say the Versaillists have occupied the Place Vendome, the Tuilleries, and the Hotel de Ville.

ARRESTED.

M. Assey is certainly in custody, and it is reported that Felix Pyat has also been arrested.

ABANDONED.

Another dispatch says the insurgents abandoned the Place de la Concorde yesterday. General Admirault's forces have captured Montmartre.

CARRIED.

VERSAILLES, May 23.—Gen. Cessey's forces have carried the barricade in the Chaussie Dumaine, in the southern part of Paris. The operations of the Government troops are progressing satisfactorily everywhere, and complete suppression of the insurrection is expected to-day or to-morrow. The losses of the Versaillists in to-day's engagement is small.

THE END.

ST. DENIS, Tuesday night, May 23.—Fighting in Paris has ceased. Marshal McMahon and President Thiers will enter to-morrow. The losses of the Communists were fearful. The troops gave no quarter and many of the leaders of the Commune were captured and many shot.

FINALLY DEFEATED.

LONDON, May 23.—The special correspondent of the Tribune at Paris, under date of Monday, telegraphs that yesterday afternoon the insurgents were driven from the Chateau De La Murtte. They subsequently rallied and held the encieute with considerable tenacity, but were finally driven back with heavy loss by the heavy fire of the Versailles batteries. At nine o'clock Dombrowski, under cover of a couple of guns, charged the Cemetery Des Pauvres. He was met by a firm and withering fire and the insurgents' line became broken and disorganized. However, they again attempted to storm the cemetery, and after hand to hand fighting the report that Dombrowski was killed, caused the insurgents to become panic stricken. A pause of a few hours succeeded, when suddenly the batteries on the hill opened on the Enciente railway, and showers of shell and a hail of musketry poured on it. The insurgents essayed a feeble reply. Suddenly heavy firing from the north was heard, and a mad panic ensued. Arms and packs were thrown away and all bolted, the officers leading the way. They surged and struggled and blasphemed up the Quay in great confusion, shot and shell chasing them. They, in the extremity of panic fought and blazed away indiscriminately, and struck each other with their clubbed rifles. As the tide of fugitives swept along, up with them relieving battalions came, imparting a fresh panic. The fire of the Versaillists reached Trocadero avenue, between the Arch de Triomphe and Rond Point, which was densely packed with fugitives. The Communists showed themselves behind a big barricade in the Place de la Concorde, but did not fire. The Versaillist battery below the arch swept the Champs Elyses. The Versaillists pressed on Avenue Friedland to open a space at the top of the Boulevard Haussmann. From thence they could sweep the Boulevard Malesherbes to Madeline, and open the way to Rue Royal.

ENGLAND.

ARRIVED.

LONDON, May 23.—The steamship European, from Quebec, arrived at Liverpool.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

LONDON, May 23.—The House of Commons last night rejected the amendment to the Army Regulation Bill, proposing exceptions to the restriction placed upon the sales of commissions. During discussions upon the amendment Messrs. Otway and Smith attacked the provisions of the bill abolishing the purchase system, and it was defended by Mr. Cardwell. Upon division the ministerial majority was thirty-nine. The House soon after adjourned.

In the Commons this evening Gladstone denounced the University Test Bill as received from the House of Lords. Mr. Walpole spoke in support of the bill, which became the theme of general but uninteresting discussion.

THE LORDS.

In the House of Lords this evening the bill enabling the dominion of Canada to create provinces from its newly acquired territory reached its second reading unopposed. Earl Granville acknowledged the receipt of the indemnity for the colliers sunk by the Prussians in the Seine. Adjourned.

SPORTING.

The great events of the week are the Derby and Oaks. The former comes off to-morrow. Starters for the race will probably number fifteen. Betting has been immense. The race for the Woodcote stakes for two year old colts and fillies to-day resulted as follows: Wm. H. Savilley's, black colt Cremorne by Parmien, out of Rigolotte, 1; Mr. M. Dawson's brown colt Landmark by Cathedral out of Miss Agnes, 2; Idleu 3. Nine ran.

PRUSSIA.

GONE HOME.

FRANKFORT, May 23.—Bismarck, Favre and Ponyer Quertier have returned home.

INTERFERENCE ON BEHALF OF THE AMERICAN MINISTER.

The Frankfort papers contain the statement that Bismarck says the German authorities have notified the Commune they will bombard Paris in case the residence of Mr. Washburne, the American Minister, should be sacked.

SPAIN.

THE CONGRESS.

MADRID, May 22.—To-day's session of the Spanish Congress was exceedingly stormy. The Radicals presented a resolution for the establishment of a Republic, and the Carlists submitted a motion declaring the election of Amadeus void, and that Don Carlos, of Spain, is the rightful King. The discussion being long and excited, they finally adjourned without a vote upon either proposition.

CONFIRMATIONS AND NOMINATIONS.

WASHINGTON, May 23, 1871.

BIGAMOUS BOWEN.

The next trial of Ex-Congressman C. C. Bowen, of South Carolina, for bigamy, will begin here to-day. The principal witnesses against him from Augusta, Ga., left there Saturday for Washington. Among them are Chief of Police Christian, Judge Levy, Ordinary of the County, Sergeant Hicks, of the police, and a lady who claims to be Mrs. Bowen. Bowen arrived in this city this morning.

THE INDIANS.

The Indians were again at the Interior Department this morning. The Chiefs related substantially the same stories which were told yesterday. Little Raven presented the Commissioner with a pipe and finally a worked buffalo robe which he drew from his own shoulders and threw it around the Commissioner. Several of the Indians to-day were dressed in their savage costume, and had their faces painted. Indian etiquette required it, as they proposed visiting the President. After a short council they were taken to the Executive Mansion, and subsequently strolled through the Treasury, returning to the Indian Office. They will probably leave Washington this evening for Philadelphia. The President has given permission to Little Raven to visit the Northern Cheyennes and Arapahoes for the purpose of bringing them south, and will also allow limited quantities of ammunition to be supplied to their people. He will ask Congress to define the boundaries of their reservation. The President expresses the opinion that a member of the Board of Indian Commissioners should visit Arizona for the purpose of investigating the difficulties constantly reported from that reigon, and endeavour to make peace.

COMMITTEE ON PRIVILEGE.

The Senate select committee on privileges with the exception of Senator Sumner, held an adjourned meeting to-night and examined assistant secretary of State, Davis. In the progress of the investigation concerning the publication of the treaty of Washington. A. J. Kierley, Telegraph Operator in the Western Union Office, who superintended its transmission was also examined as to who filed a copy, and in whose hand-writing it was, etc., all of which questions he respectfully declined to answer, because to do so would be contrary to the rules of the office and his professional obligations. He was referred to the law which requires witnesses to answer, and which prescribes fine and imprisonment for refusal, but this did not elicit replies to specific interrogations. The call of the committee upon Tinker the manager of the office, for the production of the manuscript, has not been answered.

CONFIRMATIONS.

The Senate, in executive session, confirmed the following nominations: Mark Tilton, Pension Agent, Madison, Indiana; Allyn T. Litchfield, Consul General to Calcutta; Wm. B. Parker, Pennsylvania, Consul to Zanti; Herman Bronston, Consul to Minatillan; Postmasters, Orrin B. Ingalls, Bellevidere, Illinois; Chas. E. Southard, Morris, Illinois; L. A. Harvey, Norman, Illinois; Naval—Commodore B. F. Sadds, Rear Admiral; Captain Reed Wooden Commodore; Captain Stephen D. Trenchard, Commodore.

The Senate confirmed the following nominations: A. Peter, Minister resident to Venezuela; Adolphus G. Studer, Consul to Singapore; Joseph Belknap, Supervising Inspector General of Steamboats; S. W. Chubbuck, Postmaster, Gold Hill, Nevada; N. P. Sullivan at Santa Fe, and Joel V. Griffin at Omaha. Neb.

THE TREATY.

The Senate was occupied five or six hours on the Treaty of Washington, nearly all of which time was occupied by Casserly, who examined the treaty in all its aspects, and particularly in relation to international law, making elaborate quotations from Veltel, Grotius and other writers on that subject. He would reserve his judgment until the question of ratification should require him to express it. It was the intention of several Senators yesterday to ask final action on the treaty today, even if a night session should be required for the purpose, but after sitting till nearly five o'clock, and seeing no probability of concluding the subject, adjournment until to-morrow took place, and it is now uncertain wether a vote will be reached before Thursday. Mr. Corbett, of Oregon, will address the Senate to-morrow.

THE WEATHER.

Synopsis—The weather remains unchanged on the Pacific coast, with brisk westerly winds. The barometer has risen at the Rocky Mountain stations, and on the Atlantic States area. The highest pressure has moved from the Northwest, and is now central over Lake Huron. The barometer is falling rapidly, and the Minnesota temperature has increased slightly. In the Ohio and Mississippi Valleys the threatening weather with light rains which prevailed on Monday night in the Middle and Eastern States have cleared away, but light rains have fallen on Lake Superior.

Probabilities—Brisk and high winds from the Southeast and Northeast will probably be experienced to-night on the Upper Lakes. Clear and partially clear weather is probable for Wednesday on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts.

NOMINATIONS.

The President sent to the Senate the following nominations to-day. Adolphus G. Studor Iowa, Consul to Singapore; John W. Douglas, now Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue, to be Commissioner of Customs Vice Sargant; W. Fuller, Collector Internal Revenue, 10th District, Ohio; Postmasters, B. W. Davies, Richmond, Indiana; J. T. Griffin, Omaha, Nebraska.

ORDERED TO WASHINGTON.

Whitelaw Ried, the managing editor of the Tribune, left for Washington this evening, in answer to a summons to appear before the Senate investigating committee, to give such information as he may possess in regard to the premature publication of the treaty of Washington.

CAPE MAY.

A petition has been received at the War Department, signed by the Governor, Legislature, Senators and Representatives and other officers of New Jersey and also by prominent merchants in Philadelphia for the establishment of a signal station at Cape May. The Secretary of War has [illegible] the station to be occupied.

THE VICE PRESIDENT.

But few visitors are admitted to the rooms of Vice President Colfax. His physician reports that he was easier and in an improved condition, though he is very weak, and requires attention.

FIRE.

Commodore Worden, Superintendent of the Naval Academy telegraphs that the loss by the fire there on Saturday night did not exceed $3,000.

LEAVE TO-DAY.

The Joint High Commissioners sail for England in the Cuba to-morrow, unless the steamer is detained by orders from Washington.

THE NEW LOAN.

Subscriptions to the new loans $91,000.

CINCINNATI.

All about a Woman.

CINCINNATI, May 23.—Stephen Kirk and Solomon Wall, two young men who have had some misunderstanding concerning a young lady who both were interested in, met at a church near Jones's Station, Ohio, on Sunday night; an encounter followed, which ended in Kirk dangerously stabbing Wall.

FOUND DEAD.

This afternoon at four o'clock a train on the Little Miami Railroad backed into the depot, and soon thereafter a brakeman named Wm. D. Shaw, from Columbus, Ohio, was found dead on a passenger car, supposed to have died from heart disease.

A MINISTER DEAD.

Rev. John S. Weaver, an old and widely known Presbyterian minister, died in Springfield, Ohio, yesterday.

NEW WATER WORKS.

The proposition to erect new water works ten miles above the city, is receiving fresh agitation, and the Council will visit the proposed place to-morrow.

DIED.

Mrs. Klein, one of the privy victims, died to-day.

YET LIVING.

Bishop Clark is yet living, though very low. He sits in his chair, but is unconscious. Bishop Janes and Dr. Harris, General Secretary of the Missionary Society, reached here from New York to-day, but the dying bishop was too far gone to recognize them.

ORATION.

General Noyes delivers the oration at the soldiers' grave decoration on the 30th inst.

IN HOT WATER.

The child of Charles P. Jones, while playing, fell into a bucket of hot water last evening, and died in five hours.

DIED SUDDENLY.

Dr. J. G. Miles, a prominent dentist of this city, died very suddenly to-day, it is supposed of disease of the heart.

FATAL INJURIES.

James Massop, a boss painter, and James Holan, a laborer, fell from a building on which they were employed to-day, and received probably fatal injuries.

BISHOP CLARK DEAD.

Bishop David W. Clark, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, died peacefully at twenty minutes past nine o'clock this evening. Bishop Janes and members of the family alone were present. Bishop Clark was born at Mount Desert, Maine, on February 25th, 1812. He was admitted on trial in the New York Conference in 1843, receiving his first appointment to Winsted, Connecticut. In 1847 he was stationed in New York city, where he remained four years. In 1851 he was sent to Poughkeepsie, New York, and in the year following was chosen editor of the Ladies' Repository in Cincinnati, which place he held until ordained Bishop. The funeral services will take place at St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church on Friday morning at ten o'clock. The coffin will not be opened at the church. The exercises will be under the direction of Bishop Janes, who will deliver the sermon.

NEW YORK, May 23, 1871.

HEAVY FREIGHT.

About nineteen hundred cars of freight arrived, via the Erie Railroad, last week.

PERSONAL.

Lieutenant General Sheridan and General Forsyth left yesterday for Chicago.

Governor Hoffman returned from his trip to Virginia on Sunday night and left for Albany yesterday.

FINANCIAL.

The Times' financial article says: The railway share speculation yesterday showed much firmness and some animation on the Lake Shore and Erie, and a fair business was done in the other descriptions, but the general market could scarcely be called a spirited one, as contrasted with the excitement prevailing through several days last week. The Erie revival is apparently by no means at an end, but there is now thought to be less mystery surrounding it than reality. The engineers of the old Erie ring in advance of last week would have the street believe, and have given out, that these men mean to sell themselves out of the control of the road to the highest advantage, but how far encouraged by the outside railroad people, it would be difficult for their equivocal antecedents to judge.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

The stockholders of the Texas and Pacific Railroad Company met to-day at the office of Marshall O. Roberts and had an election for directors with the following result: Moses Taylor, Marshall O. Roberts, Thos. A. Scott, Samuel J. Tilden, Edward Pierrepont, Henry G. Stebbens, Geo. W. Cass, W. T. Walters, Henry D. Newcomb, E. W. Rice, Henry S. McComb, John W. Forney, John McManus, John S. Harris, Wm. R. Travers, George W. Gruntard and J. W. Thockmorton.

At a meeting of the directors subsequently the following officers were elected: President, Marshall O. Roberts; Vice-President, Henry G. Stebbens, Treasurer, Edward Pierrepont; Secretary, E. B. Hart. Executive Committee—Thomas O. Scott, Edward Pierrepont, Henry G. Stebbens, Wm. R. Travers, G. W. Cass and W. J. Walters.

NEW TELEGRAPH COMPANY.

It is reported that a new telegraph company is forming of New York and European capitalists, who intend to lay a submarine cable from some point on the coast of Georgia to San Domingo, Jamaica and other West India islands, and thence down on the east coast of South America to Rio Janeiro and other points. It is also the intention of the company to lay another cable between the United States and Aspinwall, to build land lines across the Isthmus of Panama, and proceed thence by submarine cables down the west coast of South America, touching at Lima, Valparaiso and other points. The company will also extend a line from the United States to Cuba as soon as the right to land the cable on the Cuban coast can be obtained from the Spanish Government.

THE ERIE MYSTERY.

The Erie mystery still perplexes Wall street. The prevalent impression appears to be that Thomas A. Scott, of the Pennsylvania Central, is negotiating with Gould and Fisk, and the latter are struggling for the best obtainable terms. Meantime it seems that Commodore Vanderbilt is actively engaged in maneuvers adverse to Gould & Fisk, and some say that it is about an even chance whether the Erie will finally be absorbed by the Pennsylvania Central or New York Central.

FISK AND GOULD AGAIN.

A declaration at common law was filed yesterday in the Clerk's office of the United States Circuit court by William Foster, Jr., against James Fisk, Jr., and Jay Gould, for alleged breach of contract in refusing to take $50,000 in gold, for which defendants were to pay $70,650 in green backs. This is one of the cases arising out of the celebrated "Black Friday" operations in Wall street, in September, 1869.

ARRESTED FOR RAPE.

Edward J. Searle, L. L. D., editor of the National Quarterly Review, was arrested last evening on a charge of rape, preferred by Margaret O'Keefe. He was confined in the Sixth precinct station house last night, and will be taken this morning before Justice Dowling, who issued the warrant. Miss O'Keefe is said to be a relative of the accused.

THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN.

In the case of the Methodist Book Concern of Goodenough vs. Lanahan, in the Superior Court yesterday, before Judge Jones, the counsel for the plaintiff handed to the Court a demurrer to the answer. The case was postponed in order that the answer might be demanded. As the case now stands, it may not be reached until fall.

COMING.

We have the authority of the Russian Minister, Catecazy, and Chaplain of the Embassy, Rev. Nicholas Bjerring, for the statement that the Grand Duke Alexis is contemplating a visit to the United States during the present summer. The assertion was repeated despite the recent denial.

THE PUTNAM MURDER.

A number of witnesses were examined today in the Foster trial, all of whom testified to the good and peaceable character of the prisoner. Dr. Raybonat, police surgeon, testified that in his opinion Mr. Putnam might have recovered had he been treated immediately, and the bone removed.

THE MYSTERIOUS SUICIDE.

Further discoveries have been made which confirm the impression that the lady who killed herself two weeks ago at the Stevens House was Mrs. Kate V. Seiden, wife of the runaway gambler. A Fourth avenue grocer indentifies the handwriting of the suicide as that of Mrs. Seldon.

SPECIE.

The shipments of specie per the Germania to-day reached $350,800.

SENATE.

LOCAL OPTION.

Mr. ALLEN moved the discharge of the General Judiciary Committee from the consideration of the Local Option Bill. Lost by a party vote, the Democrats voting no.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

On motion of Mr. DAVIS (Democrat) a vote on the resolution fixing to-day for final adjournment was reconsidered and the matter postponed.

APPROPRIATION.

Mr. DILL (Democrat) offered the following: WHEREAS, The House bill No. 728, commonly called the Appropriation Bill, is now in the exclusive control of the House; therefore,

Resolved, That the House of Representatives be requested to take such action upon said bill now in their custody as to prevent its failure, either concurring in the Senate amendment thereto or returning said bill to the Senate for action, provided the House of Representatives concur.

Mr. BROOKE, (Rep.) moved a substitute instructing the speaker of the Senate to appoint another committee of conference.

Mr. DILL, (Dem.) raised a point that the amendment was not germain, and the speaker so ruled. He said the action of Saturday had been called involuntary, but it was not intended as such. It was only intended to facilitate public business which was made necessary by the House refusing to appoint conference committees on the two bills.

Mr. BILLINGFELT (Rep) said his resolution might be proper if the House had been officially notified of Saturday's Senate proceedings.

A general party discussion ensued.

Mr. WHITE, offered an amendment, which was ruled out, that the speaker be requested to appoint a committee of Conference on the appropriation bill, and finally after an excited debate, the resolution was adopted by a strict party vote, the Democrats voting aye; Republicans no.

Adjourned till three.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

ADJOURNMENT TILL THURSDAY.

On motion of Mr. BROOKS (Rep.) the Senate agreed to adjourn this evening till Thursday morning, to give Democratic Senators a chance to attend the Convention to-morrow.

PHILADELPHIA ELECTION LAWS.

Mr. BILLINGFELT (Rep.) offered a resolution which he advocated as a means of reconciliation, providing for a committee of three Senators to meet a similar House committee, if appointed, to consider the propriety of modifying the Philadelphia election laws so as to give each party proper representation on the Election Board and recommend such changes in the law as may be deemed just and equitable to all parties, and report without delay, by bill or otherwise.

Messrs. MUMMA, WHITE and BROOKE (Republicans) opposed this resolution, which passed by a party vote, Mr. Billingfelt voting with the Democrats.

The Speaker appointed Messrs. Billingfelt, Buckalew and Nagle on this committee.

WOMAN'S RIGHTS.

Mr. RANDALL introduced and had passed a bill authorizing married women to sell and transfer capital stock in railroads.

PRIVATE BILLS.

A large number of private House bills were passed.

The Clerk of the House presented the resolutions adopted by that body, whereupon Mr. BUCKALEW (Democrat) immediately called up the House resolution fixing on the sixteenth instant for final adjournment, and amended it to Saturday, 27th instant, and it passed unanimously and went to the House-Adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. CUMMINGS introduced a Constitutional amendment creating the office of Lieutenant-Governor.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

[illegible] endment to the Constitutional [illegible] the House. [illegible] sustained the [illegible] the House would concur.

Mr. REYENTHAL (Republican) moved that the House non-concur, and appoint a Committee of Conference

Mr. SCHNATTERLY (Democrat) moved an indefinite postponement of the motion, but subsequently withdrew, and the motion was immediately renewed by Mr. STRANG (Republican) for the purpose of affording an opportunity for discussion.

Mr. SCHNATTERLY sustained the Senate amendment in a speech, in which he took occasion to say that if the Republicans refused to accept this amendment at this late hour of the session, upon their heads would rest the responsibility of defeating the measure so urgently demanded by the people.

Mr. LEONARD (Democrat) said if the bill passed as framed by the Senate he should himself go into the approaching State canvass earnestly urging the people to agree to the holding of a Constitutional Convention which was much needed.

Mr. STRANG (Republican) said that after three months process of incubation a Democratic Senate had produced this bill. He found in the series of resolutions passed by the Senate on Saturday one that refused and withdrew all Conference Committees, and how could the Senate in the face of this resolution have the assurance to send to the House so important an amendment demanding careful consideration and a conference between the two Houses.

Messrs. SCHNATTERLY and CHALFANT (Democrats) asked what information this House had of the passage by the Senate of such a resolution.

Mr. STRANG answered, the same precisely as the Senate had of alleged facts on which they predicated their action and it was well for the House to consider if it had not some dignity to enforce and sustain.

Mr. SCHNATTERLY asked if the Senate proceedings on Saturday were very wrong and did that warrant the House in refusing to consider such an important measure.

Mr. STRANG answered that the regular legislative channels could not be closed without violating the rules. He was informed that the Senate had reconsidered its action on Saturday for final adjournment to-day, and they now left the House without a day of adjournment, refusing to recognize the House as a co-ordinate branch or confer with it.

Mr. HALL (Democrat) asked what effect it would have if the House had simply concurred in the Senate amendment. Would it not be a step toward Constitutional Convention?

Mr. STRANG answered that it would undoubtedly be a step toward the kind of a Convention which the Democratic Senate wants; this was childish, the Senate, like a spoiled boy, refused to play when the game did not go on satisfactorily.

Mr. MANN (Republican) said he had hoped that the two Houses would long ere this have come to a conclusion on this Constitutional Convention question, and if they did not come to a conclusion now, it was the fault of the Democratic Senate, which had refused all conference with the House. He wanted a Constitutional Convention this year, and for his part, if the Senate would allow no effort at compromise and conference, he would rather have nothing than the Senate amendment.

Mr. CHALFANT said the Democrats really wanted a Convention, but they proposed to submit the matter first to their masters, the people.

Mr. REINOEHL (Republican) said that the House bill provides for submitting the question to the people next October, the same as the Senate bill.

POSTPONEMENT VOTED DOWN.

After further discussion, a motion to indefinitely postpone was voted down by a strict party vote, the Democrats voting aye and the Republicans no.

REFUSED TO CONCUR.

The question then being on the motion to refuse to concur, Mr. SCHNATTERLY (Democrat) moved that a committee of conference be appointed. This was yielding one of the points to which the Democrats hung tenaciously.

Mr. MANN (Republican) hoped this motion would not carry. The Senate had notified the House that it would appoint no more conference committees. The right parliamentary course for the House was to notify the Senate of its non-concurrence, when, if the Senate saw proper to appoint the committee, it would be a proper time under the rules for the House to appoint a committee.

Mr. Schnatterly's motion was defeated by a party vote. The House having refused to concur in the Senate amendment. The fact was messaged to that body.

LOCAL BILL.

The House refused to concur in the Senate amendment to the Local Bank bill from Cumberland county, and a Committee of Conference was ordered.

ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. ELLIOTT (Republican) moved that the House adjourn.

Mr. JOSEPHS reminded the House that the Democratic Convention had the use of the Hall to-morrow.

The motion to adjourn was then carried by a tie party vote.

Adjourned till 3 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Mr. HUMPHREYS introduced a bill incorporating the American Volunteer Printing Company of Pittsburgh, which passed the Senate.

MORE APPROPRIATION.

A resolution, passed this morning, in reference to the Appropriation bill was read.

Mr. STRANG (Rep.) immediately moved it be referred to a special committee of three, to report to the House for immediate action in the premises, which was agreed to by a party vote, and the Speaker immediately appointed on the said Committee Messrs. Strang, Humphreys and Hall, Messrs. Strang and Hall being members of the House Conference Committee on the Apportionment bill.

SENATE DISCOURTESY.

The Senate resolutions of Saturday denouncing the House for discourtesy to the Senate were then read.

Mr. STRANG moved a similar reference.

Mr. BRAY (Rep.) moved an amendment referring them to the Committee just appointed.

Mr. JOSEPHS (Dem.) opposed the amendment on the ground that the Committee did not embrace a single Philadelphian, and the Democrats wanted a Philadelphian on the Committee.

Mr. Corays motion was carried by a party majority.

RESIGNING.

Mr. HALL (Democrat,) resigned from the Committee. The Speaker appointed Mr. Josephs (Democrat,) in his place.

Mr. HUMPHREYS, (Republican) resigned and the Speaker appointed Mr. Johnston in his place.

At a quarter past four the House took a recess of half an hour to allow the special committee on the Senate resolutions to consult the House, and did not reassemble until a quarter past five.

THE CIVIL CODE.

Mr. SHURLOCK reported from the ways and means Committee, the Senate joint resolution for a Committee of three from each House to revise the report of the Civil Code Commissioners, to report in printing to the next legislature. Passed.

TAKING A STAND.

Mr. STRANG, (Rep.) submitted the following committee to whom was referred the resolution of the Senate in regard to the appropriation bill, and the subject of appointing committees of conference between the House and Senate, respectfully repeat the following resolutions to be reported to the Senate:

That while the House conceives it has pursued the usual and proper course in regard to the apportionment bill, by promptly appointing a Committee of Conference, which Committee has at all times had itself in readiness to meet the Committee appointed by the Senate, in an attempt to reconcile the differences between the two bodies, yet, as the result of an extreme anxiety to close the session which has already been prolonged to an unusual extent, and a sincere desire to reconcile the unfortunate difference existing between the two bodies, we hereby resolve, if the Senate will send to the House a resolution fixing a time for the final adjournment at an early day, first, that we will take such action on the appropriation bill as will result either in concurring or non-concurring in said bill; and second, that the House will concur in the resolution of the Senate and appoint a Committee to take into consideration the propriety of modifying the election laws for the city of Philadelphia, and report by bill or otherwise. This being the only action which the rules of our body will now permit to be taken on that question, the bill as amended having been indefinitely postponed, and the motion to reconsider the same having been voted down.

Resolved, That the clerk be directed to communicate the foregoing to the Senate.

[Signed.]
B. B. STRANG,
SAMUEL JOSEPHS,
R. JOHNSON,
Committee.

This was unanimously adopted, and the House took a recess to await the action of the Senate.

NON-CONCURRING.

After six o'clock the House re-assembled, and Mr. STRANG immediately moved to reconsider the vote appointing a Conference Committee on the Appropriation Bill, which was agreed to and the committee withdrawn. The bill was then sent back to the Senate with a message that the House non-concurs in the Senate amendments.

ADJOURNMENT FIXED.

The Clerk of the Senate then appeared with the joint resolution for final adjournment, so amended by the Senate as to fix the time to Saturday, 27th of May. The House unanimously concurred.

COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE.

Mr. HEWITT, (Republican) moved concurrence in the Senate resolution for the appointment of a Joint Committee of Conference on the Philadelphia registry amendment, with power to report the bill. Agreed to unanimously and the Speaker appointed Messrs. Hewitt, Dumbell and Josephs on the said Committee.

The Clerk of the Senate appeared with the information that the Senate had refused to recede from her amendments to the appropriation bill, ordering a Committee of Conference, which was greeted with laughter from the Republican side and on motion of Mr. STRANG, the Speaker appointed Messrs. Strang, Johnson and Hall, the original members of the new Committee.

"MUSIC BY THE BAND."

The motion to adjourn till Thursday morning at nine o'clock having passed, McClurg's Band, in the employ of the Democratic State Convention, who had taken seats in the lobby, played "Home, Sweet Home," to the amusement of the crowd, and immediately after, Mr. CORAY (Republican) moved the thanks of the House to the band for their courtesy, which was unanimously carried, when the Speaker, at seven o'clock, pronounced the House adjourned till Thursday, and the band played "Auld Lang Syne."

U. S. SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 23, 1871.

SENATE.

The Senate met at half past ten o'clock. The Secretary laid a letter before that body from Mr. Colfax, saying he did not expect to preside over the Senate during the remainder of the Session.

On motion of Mr. SUMNER, Mr. ANTHONY was elected President pro tem of the Senate.

Mr. CAMERON moved to go into executive session.

Mr. SUMNER asked that his resolution to discharge Messrs. White and Ramsdell forthwith be taken up, but instead of this a motion for an executive session prevailed, and the consideration of the treaty was resumed.

INDIANAPOLIS.

The Milligan Case.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 23.—In the Milligan trial in the United States District Court today, the principal part of the evidence taken in his trial before the court martial was introduced by the defence and a number of witnesses. The evidence will probably be closed tomorrow.

SARATOGA.

Fire.

SARATOGA, N. Y., May 23.—A fire this morning destroyed the grocery of J. M. Ritney, and seriously damaged the drug store of J. W. Hill and the hardware store of J. G. Cook. Loss estimated at $30,000.

CHICAGO.

Died Suddenly.

CHICAGO, May 23.—Henry S. Fitch, formerly United States District Attorney for this district, and more recently United States District Attorney for the District of Georgia, died suddenly at the Sherman House in this City, this morning, of pneumonia. Mr. Fitch was a son of Ex-United States Senator Graham N. Fitch of Indiana. At the expiration of his term of office as District Attorney here at the close of Buchanan's administration, he entered into a law partnership with Gen. Jas. Mulligan and after the breaking out of the war joined the military service, occupying chiefly administrative positions. At the close of the war he was appointed by the President of the United States District Attorney for Georgia, and has been a resident of Savannah ever since that time. He was elected United States Senator by the first Legislature of Georgia that met after the war, but the Legislature that was subsequently organized under the reconstruction laws of Congress displaced him by Mr. Hill, and therefore he never took his seat.

ZEIGENMEYER.

Zeigenmeyer, the alleged murderer of M. W. Gumbelson, arrived here this morning, having been brought from Brunswick, Germany, in the custody of Chicago officers. A large number of people visited the police headquarters to see the prisoner, but he refused to hold conversation with any one. Aside from the indictments for murder, there are two indictments for forgery against him. He will probably be arraigned to-morrow morning, and it is no timprobable that the trial will take place at the present term of the Court.

BAPTIST FUN.

About fifty Baptist ministers were stowed away last night in the upper chapel of the University. During the night a number of mischievous students proceeded to their sleeping place and took every garment which had been laid aside, and with these adorned the tower of the chapel. The scene this morning can be better imagined than described when the reverends awoke. With many blushes and vain efforts to conceal the extremities which the occasion exposed, the gentlemen stole their way down stairs, selected their garments and assumed an exterior which fitted for an appearance in public.

PHILADELPHIA.

The Presbyterians.

PHILADELPHIA, May 23.—In the Presbyterian Synod to-day the Committee on Presbyteries' Reports made a report that there was great cause for thankfulness shown by the reports from the Presbyteries. But one organization had been lost to the connection during the year. The Committee requested the Presbyteries to send statistical tables with their reports in future. The Moderator announced the following names, one from each Presbytery, to be added to the Committee on Church Property which was endangered by the late secession: Pointer Gibson, Moses Shirra, Jas. Robb, Jas. Imbrie, Jas. S. Martin, of Philadelphia, Alex. Woods, of New York, and Alex. Clark, D. D. The Committee on the Signs of the Times made a report expressing great thankfulness for the completion of various acts of justice which have lately taken place in Europe. Some of these were the downfall of the Roman Church and overthrow of the French Empire. The Committee recommend that the Church observe as a day of thanksgiving the last Thursday in November next, in addition to the day set apart by the civil authorities. The Committee also recommend that the first of January next be observed as a day of fasting and prayer for the sins of the Church. A recess was then taken to visit the Union rooms and other places of public interest.

NEW YORK.

Extensive Fires.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 23.—A very destructive fire occurred at Canandaigua this morning, destroying several buildings on Main street and damaging the Webster House. The losses and insurance are not known.

Seven buildings of the Shaker settlement near Mt. Morris, Livingston county were burning yesterday. Loss $8,000.

The flouring mill of Schuler Bros., at Lyons was burned last night. Loss $25,000; insurance, $13,000. The fire was the work of an incendiary.

The Empire steam flouring mills belonging to Smith & Merseveau, of Union, New York, were entirely consumed by fire this P. M., also a large dwelling house and barns, together quantity of grain, flour, feed and a large amount of lumber. The woolen mills were also consumed. Loss unknown but very heavy. Insurance $10,000.

A destructive fire occurred at Trumansburg yesterday morning. Fifteen buildings were destroyed, also the stock in twenty-five business places. Losses over $100,000. Insurance $50,000.

BALTIMORE.

An Officer Shot.

BALTIMORE, May 23.—James Clark, a policeman, was shot dead last night in a bagnio on the corner of Halliday and Centre streets. The officer was called in to quell a disturbance, and in an attempt to arrest Frederick Cussey was shot dead by him.

EDITORIAL EXCURSION.

Sixty journalists principally Editors of newspapers in New York State and Northern Pennsylvania, arrived at Baltimore this morning on a trip to Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina.

GOOD TEMPLARS.

The Right Worthy Grand Lodge of the Independant Order of Good Templars of North America held its annual session this morning, the G. W. C. Templar, presiding. About 200 representatives and visitors from different States and Territories of the United States as well as from England and Canada were present. Reports were read showing the Order to be in a flourishing condition. Total number of lodges 6,500. Membership about 400,000. State of finances very satisfactory.

OMAHA.

The Indians.

OMAHA, May 23.—The steamer Ida Reeves left Fort Benton on the twentieth with a load of furs and reported from North Platte Nebraska that a party of Indians stole a lot of cattle from near that place and were pursued and all the cattle recovered with exception of six head. One of the herders was shot and slightly wounded by the Indians.

THE MINERS.

The Utah miners are protesting strongly against the railroad league increasing freight on silver ore. The steamer Salt Lake was launched on Bear river at Corinne Utah today.

NASHVILLE.

Suit for Damages.

NASHVILLE, May 23.—Douglas and Johnson have brought suit in the Nashville Circuit Court against the Nashville & North Western Railroad for twenty thousand dollars damages for injuries done to Muggins, the celebrated race horse, by which he was rendered incapable of running.

PAYING BONDS.

The Memphis & Ohio Railroad will pay tomorrow two millions of dollars of State bonds to the Comptroller.

LEXINGTON.

Serious Accident.

LEXINGTON, May 23.—Dr. L. Herr the well known veterinary surgeon of this city and owner of Membrine, and Patchen, met with a very serious injury this morning while among his horses which were in a field adjoining his residence. He was in the act of catching one of them when the sister of Billy Boyce the noted pacer, suddenly wheeled and kicked the Doctor in the small of his back, felling him to the ground. He was carried to his house where he has since laid with severe suffering.

CAIRO.

Brutal Murder.

CAIRO, Ill., May 23.—A brutal murder was perpetrated on Wolfe Island, yesterday, near Columbus, Ky. A farmer named Nick Cayce discharged a man named John Morton from his employ and about sunset the latter returned with another man, whose name is unknown, both armed with shot guns, who called Cayce to the gate and shot him. The murderers stole a skiff and escaped. Cayce is represented to be a quiet inoffensive man. The murder was entirely unprovoked.

POUGHKEEPSIE

Coal Trouble.

POUGHKEEPSIE, May 23.—Information has been received at Rondout to the effect that coal will be received there on Monday next, but the canal boat men are indignant over the order allowing but 90 cents a ton as the price and loudly denounce the Delaware and Hudson Canal Companies. It is feared they will not accept the freight rates and trouble will ensue.

EDWARDSVILLE.

Arrested.

EDWARDSVILLE, ILL., May 23.—William Breman, arrested on the first of April last by Col. Geo. A. Q. Miller, special agent of the Postoffice Department, for abstracting money from the letter of a friend which he received at the post office, on being brought into court plead guilty and was sentenced to one year's imprisonment to the penitentiary

TITUSVILLE.

Conflagration.

TITUSVILLE, May 23.—At eight o'clock this evening oil was struck in another well on Cherry Run, where the rimmer was being used in great haste. The fire was put out but the heated boiler set the gas on fire, and an explosion followed. Five employes who were present were knocked down and badly burned. The well is owned by Messrs. Emery, Patterson and Caldwell, and is probably a big one.

BUFFALO.

A Minister Dead.

BUFFALO, May 23.—Rev. Dr. Walter Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of this city, died this morning.

Oil Market.

TITUSVILLE, May 23.—The Courier reports the petroleum sales as follows: Upper Road—sales 500 bbls spot at $4.70; do do do at $4.70; 1,000 bbls do at $4.70; 600 do do at $4.70; 1,600 do do at $4.70; 1,600 do do at $4.72½; 1,000 bbls regular at $4.72½; 300 do do at $4.72½; 250 do do at $4.72½; 2,900 do do at $4.75; 1,000 do do at $4.75. Lower Road—sales 1,000 bbls regardless at $4.80; do do do at $4.75. Oil City—sales 350 bbls, 46 gravity and under; 500 do; 1,000 do, 47 gravity; 500 do; 1,000 do, 46 gravity; 505 do; 500 do, 47 gravity; 505 do. This was another very quiet day, with holders firm and only a little business doing. There were no advance in prices till late in the day, when holders on the Upper Road advanced their demands for spot to $4.75, and at the close no oil could be had for less. On the Lower Road and at Oil City we note no change. Market closed firm with a strong upward tendency.

Live Stock.

BUFFALO, May 23.—Cattle receipts this week somewhat in excess, of those last being 230 cars against 315, of which 125 former were through consignments. Owing to the depressed state of the Eastern market for beef, and the growing demand for veal as well as for shipments, cattle from the western market opened out with the slightest demand for shipping purposes, and few sales made were to retail butchers. Sheep continue dull, and following the tone of the New York market, no transactions have yet taken place upon which to base quotations. Hogs very dull, and demand confined; light weight quotations, namely 4,75@5,00; higher price being paid for lighter stock.

THE applicants for an extension of the patent for the fire alarm telegraph, Dr. Channing and Moses G. Farmer of Boston, represent that during the seven years about closing, which the present system has existed, they have have made only $30,000; that the free use of the patent was originally given to Boston, but was subsequently stolen by Philadelphia, Chicago and several other cities; and also that the patent has been the means of saving millions of dollars and numberless lives wherever it has been applied.

ANTIQUITY AND ENTERPRISE.—Recently an old building, well known to us from childhood, was renovated, and during the process the workmen unearthed a large quantity—something less than a million bushels—of the identical malt "which lay in the house that Jack built." Of course Pier, Dannals & Co., secured it, and are now brewing from it their beautiful cream ale.

FISTULA AND PILES cured without caustic or the knife, at Dr. Keyser's office for chronic diseases, 167 Liberty street.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

To Iron Manufacturers.

Proposals for a First-Order Iron Light-House, to be Erected at Southwest Pass, Mouth of Mississippi River, Louisiana.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE LIGHT-HOUSE BOARD,
WASHINGTON, May 15, 1871.

Sealed proposals will be received at this office until one o'clock of Friday, the 9th day of June, 1871, from iron manufacturers only, for furnishing the materials and labor of all kinds necessary to construct a first-order iron light-house for Southwest Pass, Louisiana, in accordance with the accompanying specifications and drawings.

The same to be delivered, at the expense of the contractor, on board of a sea-going vessel or vessels, at any sea port nearest to the manufacturer's workshops, and accessible to such vessels.

The Light-House Board will provide all the timber work, bolts, and concrete for the foundation pier, the glass for the lantern, the lens, lamps, and furniture belonging thereto, and their cost is not to be included in the amount of the bid, but the contractor will be required to furnish all the wood-work above the foundation pier, and the cost thereof shall be included in the amount of the bid.

The bid should state the sum for which the ENTIRE WORK, as shown on the drawings will be completed, fully erected at the workshops, and then taken down after acceptance, and delivered as aforesaid, and should also state the day and date on which it shall be so completed and delivered, under forfeit, as specified in the "Form of Bid."

The work will be carried on under the personal supervision of an agent of the Board, and all facilities must be afforded him for inspecting the material and workmanship. Such parts of either as are not in accordance with the drawings and specifications must, in case of rejection, be made good at the expense of the contractor.

The Board reserves the right to reject any proposal for any reasons it may deem sufficient.

Each bid must be accompanied by a bond, signed by the bidder and two competent sureties (certified to be such by some officer known to the Treasury Department), in the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), that, in the event of the acceptance of such bid, the necessary contract will be entered into within ten (10) days after notice is given by the Board that the bid has been accepted.

Bond and security, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), signed by two competent bondsmen for the faithful performance of the contract, will be required.

A copy of the plans and specifications must be inclosed with the bid, as evidence as to the object of the proposal.

All proposals must be signed, sealed, and indorsed "Proposals for a light-house for Southwest Pass, Louisiana," and then inclosed in another envelope and directed, prepaid, to Rear-Admiral W. B. Shubrick, Chairman of the Light-House Board, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

Any bidder may be present and witness the opening of the bids at the time and place hereinbefore specified.

Payments for the work will be made quarterly, upon estimates certified to by the agent of the Board; but twenty (20) per centum of the amount of each estimate will be withheld until the satisfactory completion of the contract.

Plans, specifications and forms of proposals may be obtained from Lieutenant Colonel J. C. Duane, United States Engineers, Portland Maine, and at 13 Exchange street, Boston, Massachusetts. Lieutenant Colonel I. C. Woodruff, United States Engineers, Tompkinsville, Staten Island, New York; G. Castor Smith, Esq., Assistant Light-House Engineer, southeast corner Sixth and Walnut streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Captain Peter C. Hains, United States Engineers, Union Bank Building, Baltimore, Maryland; Major W. E. Merrill, United States Engineers, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and from the undersigned.

LOUISVILLE
CEMENT.
The Best--The Cheapest.

The Cement has acquired the reputation as the first in the country in hydraulic strength and uniform reliability.

It is now in general use from the lakes to the Gulf, most of the public works in the West and South being constructed with it.

The mills at Louisville having been enlarged and improved, can supply any demand, and though the Cement has always, for 30 years brought higher prices than competing brands, it is from this time the determination of the manufacturers, in order to largely increase the sale and extend the use of their Cement, to furnish it in the principal markets at prices which make it the most available and economical for all classes of work.

The large capacity of this Cement for taking sand renders it much the cheapest that can be used for buildings of any kind.

At the reduced prices in Pittsburgh its cost is not much above common lime, which makes it unquestionably to the interest of owners and builders that the foundation of every good house should be laid in this Cement.

A large stock of fresh Cement has just been received by barges from Louisville, and is offered at greatly reduced prices by the following dealers:

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 111⅛@111¼.

THE proposition to establish an American National Santiary Association meets with hearty approval and endorsement in all sections of the country.

THE Senate of the United States may derive a large measure of comfort from the continued incarceration of the Tribune correspondents, but public opinion denounces the act as unworthy the dignity of the highest legislative body of the land.

THE country will receive with profound sorrow the announcement of the sudden and dangerous illness of Vice President Colfax. His close application to his office and strict attention to the interests of the country have been too great taxes upon him physically, and he must take rest if he would be restored again to full health. It would prove a great calamity to the nation should Mr. Colfax be called out of public service.

TO-DAY, in all probability, the Treaty of Washington will be ratified without amendment in the Senate. It will, without any doubt, be also ratified promptly by the Crown of England, and go to the Parliament for acceptance or concurrence. It is not necessary in England, save and except through queenly courtesy, that the text of the treaty be submitted for the ratification of the Parliament, as the Crown alone has the power of treaty making.

THE Post, it seems, can never forgive or forget United States District Attorney Swoope for throwing such destructive shells into the Democratic lines last Fall. Attacking his piety and reverence for the Bible is rather refreshing, and cannot do him much damage in public estimation. The appellation, "Butcher" Swoope, is particularly fitting, for in his official capacity he slaughtered many of the Post's political tax-evading and counterfeiting friends, but this he cannot avoid, for an honest man must do his full duty, let the axe fall where it will.

HARDLY a day passes but we are called upon to chronicle one or more fatal accidents resulting from the careless use and handling of burning oil. It is somewhat singular that people will not grow prudent in the use of this dangerous fluid. It would be as safe to attempt to ignite a fire with a quart of gunpowder as with so much petroleum, and yet housekeepers seem to feel perfectly safe in its use to hasten kindling. Thousands of victims have already fallen from applying petroleum to such purposes, and much property has been destroyed, and yet despite this fearful record of mortality the danger is not avoided, but daily rushed into by inconsiderate and thoughtless people.

THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

To-day the Democrats of Pennsylvania will meet in Convention at Harrisburg for the purpose of nominating a State ticket and of laying down a platform of principles on which to fight and conduct the coming campaign. The action of the Convention to-day will make up the issue for the canvass and will open the fight. There will doubtless be exercised much care by the opposition in the selection of their ticket, and doubtless their platform will be carefully guarded and promise much. The Democracy recognize, as keenly as do the Republicans, that the election next October in this State is pregnant with importance and will have powerful influence in its bearing in the National struggle to follow so close upon its wake. The attention of the people of the United States will be directed towards it and victory one way or the other will be well worth the effort to secure it. The Republican party has taken the initiative and set before the people candidates of real merit and ability, and such against whom no word of disparagement can be uttered. They are men worthy the hearty personal support of all right thinking citizens, who have the best interests of the Commonwealth at heart. The principles embodied in the platform are such as must command support and endorsement, and, different in this respect from the opposition, the Republican party never makes idle promises without meaning to keep them well and faithfully. With such candidates and such a broad, liberal and patriotic platform with which to go before the voters, there can be no good reason why a brilliant victory shall not be gained at the general election. With earnestness in the work and an old-fashioned desire to win, there can be no doubt but an overwhelming majority awaits us.

It is hardly possible that the proceedings will be harmonious or dignified in the Convention of to-day. The old leaders, that have so long water-logged the party, have made a slate which the young element in the Democratic party have vowed to break, and if the latter do not succeed in their purposes, there will be war declared between the two factions. Then again, the delegates will be called upon to determine "whether to go backward or forward," whether to take the advance steps of Vallandigham, or to keep on the old pathway, and this will invoke a difference of opinion, which may lead to the same troubles that now beset the party in Ohio. We think our Democratic friends will make the departure, and take up living issues in their resolutions, but they will not be in earnest. Their platform will be planed and smoothed only to catch voters and will be full of idle promises which never would be made in a national struggle, and which never will be faithfully fulfilled. But we can wait and see what we shall see.

THE TREATY IN CANADA.

The Canadianians are very much divided on the Treaty of Washington and some of their journals wax warm in its discussion. The fishery question seems most to annoy them. One journal defiantly exclaims "to yield our fisheries to the rapacious and wasteful mercies of New Englanders would be to doom them to ruin, for they managed in a few years to exhaust their own and will render us like service. We might with equal reason be required to resign our pine forests, because the latter are far less profitable and can only indirectly help to build up our national life. The treaty tells the Ottawa mill-owner the Burlington barge may navigate the Chambly canal and load lumber at his mill side, but he shall not float a keel on Lake Champlain, though it is the basin of distribution for the lumber supply of the Eastern States. If there was any equity in the fisher demand of the New Englanders, how comes it that Maryland sets them at defiance and warns them away from her coasts? Do white men in Nova Scotia not rank on a par with Marylanders? We invited Nova Scotia to join our Confederation, and our first act after she assents is to call on her to sacrifice rights which, if she became a member of the Republic, would be guaranteed. Let Novia Scotia to-morrow annex herself to the United States, would she not be placed on the same category with Maryland or any other State? Would she not enjoy the exclusive jurisdiction over her shore fisheries? Are we to sacrifice her, because the Americans may declare non-intercourse? Admitting that they resorted to a measure so highly injurious to themselves, would not such a policy contribute powerfully to make us self-reliant and impel us to push forward our Intercolonial so as to be perfectly independent of their railways?"

We might pardon the writer for the excess of ill humor he developes in the remainder of his article in which he warns and threatens the United States that "twteny years hence the aggregate population of England's confederated Colonies will leave the United States nothing to boast of in the way of numbers, and be it remembered that these Confederations will be linked together by a fleet that can dominate every sea, that no fortress can resist." This is certainly painting a nice future for the Dominion, but the colors will wash out before long. England cares little for her American possessions and within two decades of years we may see the annexation of her colonies to our own domain. The selfishness of Canada on the fishery question is natural enough, but our government should have a word to say in defense of our commercial marine. The whining objections against the treaty from our cousins across the line will have little weight in the discussion of its merits either in our Senate or the English Parliament. Indeed, threatening language towards our country comes with very bad grace from a people who owe much of their peace and safety to us, for should our Fenians be let loose upon them, there is no telling but they would "set up an independent Erin" on their soil.

ECCLESIASTICAL COURTS.

We have the highest regard for church courts, and believe that all who live under their jurisdiction should submit to whatever decisions they may render in righteousness. When any individual cannot yield obedience to the behests of an ecclesiastical body, he should seek for a spiritual home in some other denomination. But when we say this we are not to be understood as maintaining that there should not be the right of full and free discussion granted to every member of the organization. To deny this would be unjust.

But with all our respect for them, we must say that church courts and religious conventions make decisions very often that are repugnant to their own most clearly defined laws. A case has occurred in the General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church, now in session in Philadelphia, which every one who understands the alphabet of Presbyterianism will pronounce a high-handed outrage. Some time since two congregations under the jurisdiction of the Pittsburgh Presbytery asked certificates of dismission to connect themselves with the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church. After some discussion the certificates were granted, only two voting in the negative. Against the action of Presbytery one of the ministerial members gave notice of protest, "with the view of bringing the matter before a higher tribunal," but took no formal "appeal" to Synod, which he should have done if he intended to bring the matter before that body. According to the laws of all Presbyterian bodies with which we are acquainted, it is required that the person or persons who feel aggrieved at any decision, should give notice of protest and take an appeal to the higher judicatory as soon as the decision is announced, and file their reasons of protest in "writing" within ten days or two weeks after it is rendered. No reasons of protest were filed in this case, and the conclusion arrived at, in accordance with an undeviating rule of Presbytery, was, that the protester did not intend to prosecute the matter before a "higher tribunal."

Contrary to law and expectation "a protest and an appeal," as they are called, were presented to the Synod in Philadelphia, in the absence of the Presbytery, and judgment was rendered thereon without the opportunity of a hearing being granted! Tell it not in Pittsburgh, let it not be published in Philadelphia!! There never was a more high-handed outrage perpetrated against any law, civil or ecclesiastical.

But the action of the Synod amounts to nothing. It is as ineffectual, in any sense, as a "Pope's Bull against a comet." One of the congregations, at least, has been formally received into the communion of the United Presbyterian Church, and the other will be, in all probability, before long. Such action, however, has a tendency to bring law and order into contempt. The Synod could not legally take up the case when its own rules had not been complied with. The protester having failed to hand in his reasons in writing, the protest fell to the ground: and the issuing of the case in the absence of the Presbytery, and without any notice having been given to it in any form, of an intention to investigate the matter showed a determination to set all law at defiance.

—It should have been stated above that the request of the congregations had been before the Presbytery at two separate meetings, and that at neither of them was there any remonstrance presented against granting the certificates. The congregations were clearly entitled to them, and they received them. No court can now recall them.

GREAT CARPET-BAGGERS.

The spirit of Know Nothingism is not extinct yet. The National Constitution provides expressly that a man shall not forfeit his political rights when he removes from one State to another, and that he shall be entitled to the respect due to an American citizen wherever he may take up his abode, provided he conforms to the laws of the State in which he lives, and of the United States. The fourth Article declares among other things, that, "The citizens of each State shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several States." This is a wise provision which is made in the organic law of the nation. If it were otherwise, the consequences would be fearful. If a citizen were only entitled to the rights of citizenship in the State in which he was born, he would then disfranchise himself as soon as he removed beyond its limits, and be in no better condition than an alien. Story says: "It is obvious that if citizens of the different States were to be deemed aliens to each other they could not inherit, or hold, or purchase real estate or possess any political or municipal privileges in any other State than that in which they were born. And the States would be at liberty to make laws, giving preference of rights and offices, and even privileges in trade and business, to those who were natives over all other persons who belonged to other States; or they might make invidious discriminations between the citizens of different States. Such a power would have a tendency to generate jealousies and discontents injurious to the harmony of all the States. And, therefore," says the distinguished jurist, "the Constitution has wisely created, as it were, a general citizenship, communicating to the citizens of each State, resident in another, all the privileges and immunities enjoyed by the citizens of the latter."

But notwithstanding that a citizen of any State has a constitutional right to move into and hold office in any other State, Democratic journals, and even some Republican ones, stigmatize those northerners who have gone into the southern States and have been elevated to office, and indeed, all others, whether they may have been raised to official positions or not, with the name of "carpet-baggers." Such journalists would send home to their native land every Irishman, German and Frenchman and even "Heathen Chinee" in the country: yet they are blustering continually about the violation of the Constitution. If a man who comes here from Ireland, Germany or any other country, has a right to hold office and enjoy the privileges of citizenship, and this journal has always contended that naturalized citizens whatever may be their nationality, have this right, surely an American citizen, whether of native or foreign birth, has an indefeasible right to live wherever he chooses and prosecute an honest and lawful calling. He who stigmatizes a citizen of the United States as a "carpet-bagger" cannot have due respect for the fundamental law of the nation. Surely those Southern gentlemen who are now residing here, and enjoying the immunities and privileges of citizenship to as full an extent at least as they did in their natal home, will not feel complimented by the wholesale and continual denunciation of "carpet-baggers." Their political affiliations and ours may be different, but we delight to do them honor, and if the people in the districts in which they reside see fit to invest them with any office, we will not protest because they were born in the South.

There have always been carpet-baggers, and we believe there always will be. There are many illustrious names crowding upon our memory, who, although they would fall under the category of carpet-baggers if they lived now, were not the less patriotic because they exercised rule, and unsheathed the sword in a foreign State. William III, of England, was a carpet-bagger. He bagged the Princess Mary, daughter of James II, the British throne and crown, and finally bagged James himself and his army on the banks of the Boyne, and is still held in "glorious and immortal memory" by the lovers of constitutional law, and of civil and religious liberty in England. He was not the less devoted to English interests because he was born in the Netherlands. Napoleon was a Corsican by birth, but he became a carpet-bagger in France. Christopher Columbus was an Italian, but no less Spanish because born in Genoa. John Cabot, a Venetian, discovered the coasts of Labrador while in the service of Henry VII. of England. Lafayette, of Auvergne, and De Kalb, of Alsace, were carpet-baggers in the Revolutionary war, and America fondly cherishes their memory until this day.

We will never get rid of these carpet-baggers, and we do not wish to. They are found everywhere. In the Congress of the United States, we have Whitely from Ireland, Mitchell from Scotland, Platt from Canada, and Schurz from Germany. If Northern men have no right to go South and enjoy the privileges of citizens, surely these gentlemen have no right to occupy seats in the halls of our National Legislature. How absurd, then, and un-American is the howl that is constantly kept up against our Northern fellow-citizens who have gone down into the South? Why are inducements held out to Northern laborers and capitalists by men in the South to go down and enjoy the benefits of their sunny clime? Is it that they may be branded as carpet-baggers, and lynched by Ku-Kluxers? Men will not feel inclined to visit a country for the pleasure (!) of having opprobrious and unmeaning epithets heaped upon them. Those then who indulge in this kind of vituperation, whatever may be their motives, cannot be the friends of the South.

But if this carpet-bagging principle is carried out, what will be the result? The whole nation will have to be reconstructed. The entire country will be thrown into anarchy. Take the State of Minnesota which has 439,330 inhabitants, to illustrate what we say. Of these nearly 320,000 are "carpet-baggers," 39,507 of whom are from New York, 24,048 from Wisconsin, 12,651 from Ohio, 34,485 from New England, 11,966 from Pennsylvania, 10,979 from Illinois, 16,688 from British North America, 21,746 from Ireland, besides many more from Scandinavia, England and other countries. Must these all return to the places of their nativity? If carpet-bagging is wrong in the South, why should it not be equally so in the North? Or, is the idea that we must have two countries, a North and a South?

When we look over the country we see that these carpet-baggers are ubiquitous We have them in the pulpit, the Senate chamber, at the Bar, on the editorial tripod, in every place. Why not issue a decree that men shall live where they were born, and shall not be permitted to exercise the rights or enjoy the immunities of citizenship in a foreign State? If such a law were enacted, how many of the best citizens of Pittsburgh would be compelled to take their departure? A number of our banks would lose their Presidents, the bar would be stripped of some of its brightest ornaments, and the editorial chair would have to be vacated by some of its most accomplished and racy writers. Even our bland and genial friend of the Post would have to seize his carpet bag, and march back to enjoy the scenes of the sunny days of his childhood, a thing which we would regret exceedingly.

This talk about carpet-bagging is disgraceful. If an American citizen is not honored and respected in his own country' we need not expect that honor and respect will be accorded him in any other. We think it was General Butler who said some time since, and said truly, referring to the existing state of things in the South, "the name of an American citizen seems to be a passport to secure for him a safe passage through every country but his own."

COL. T. M. BAYNE.

PITTSBURGH, May 23, 1871.

MESSRS. EDITORS: As the time for the election of delegates to the Republican County Convention is near at hand, permit me to say a word through your columns in favor of Col. Thomas M. Bayne one of the candidates for the office of District Attorney.

Colonel Bayne has been a life-long Republican, and during all of its campaigns has been one of the most ardent, energetic and sincere workers in the Republican party. He served his country equally well in the field during our civil war as Colonel of the 126th Pennsylvania Volunteers. At the bar, as a lawyer and gentleman, he has taken high rank for his ability and integrity.

The importance of the office of District Attorney demands that it be filled by a gentleman at once able and energetic and honest. No man now before the people comes more fully up to the requirements of the position than does Colonel Bayne. We consider him by long odds the most desirable man in the field and earnestly call upon all Republicans to extend to him their cordial and earnest support.

A Singular Story from Elmira--Numerous Private Marriages Among Young People.

[From the Elmira Advertiser, May 18.]

Almost, if not quite, a year ago, some half dozen or more of young lads and misses, all of them members of the families of some of our most reputable citizens, took it into their heads to be married. Whether it was a premeditated affair, considered as a joke, or was the wild freak of a moment when they were all collected together, and each one more or less excited to it by the presence of the others, we cannot say, but the ceremony was privately and secretly performed for each couple, and they were really and truly married. That many of them consider it merely a joke is borne out by the fact that, after the performance, each returned to his or her home. As time passed along, one after another, two or three confessed their situation and their conduct to their surprised and saddened parents, and the marriage, which is said to be a legal and binding one in all these cases, was acknowledged.

A LONDON correspondent says it is almost impossible now to induce any publisher in that city to accept a manuscript which severely criticises or ridicules the manners and customs of this country; not perhaps from any particular good feeling toward America, but because so many such ventures have proved financial failures. At the same time books of travel honestly descriptive of the cities and people of the United States are reported to be in demand.

PROF. W. G. BRILL, of Utrecht, is preparing a new edition of the "Voyage of St. Brandaen," said to be one of the most remarkable remains of sacred poetry of the Middle Netherlands. The fantastic descriptions recall the supernatural element of the romances of the Round Table. The only edition that has hitherto appeared of this ancient poem, which probably belongs to the thirteenth century, or even an earlier time, is one of M. Blommaert, of Ghent.

THE Princess Luperano of Naples has just given a proof that one is not merely never too old to learn, but never too old to succeed as a writer. This noble lady is now 82 years of age, and has made her first appearance as a dramatic author with entire success. Her work is a comedy in five acts, entitled "Il Danaro," which is, being interpreted, as we understand it, "Money." It has had a great run at Naples. We rather think the Princess is the first instance of an octogenarian debutante on the scene of authorship.

THE Paris correspondent of the Bookseller's Guide mentions "The Golden Book of the Siege of Paris" as the most curious publication now in the press. More than one hundred artists have brought their contributions to it. Each of them present at Paris during the siege (no other has been admitted) furnishes one or two illustrations from his own drawings of scenes of which he has been a witness. Here will be found the last two sketches from the pencil ofpoor Henry Regnault, shot at Buzenval. The whole work is superintended by Bertail, who has also writen the text. It is a kind of a monument erected to Paris by its artists.

The Murder of Unoffending Men in South Carolina--A Horrible Outrage in Spartanburg.

To the Editor of the Columbia (S. C.) Union.

On Thursday night, May 4th, a large band of masked men, estimated at from forty to fifty persons, visited the plantation of Rev. Dr. Jones, in Glenn Springs township, Spartanburg county. They assaulted the door of Wallace Fowler, a man of unblemished reputation and much moral worth. He asked them not to break down the door, that he would open it. He did so; they at once seized him, dragged him a few feet from the door and shot him. Not satisfied with inflicting a mortal wound, they went into the house and took a shovel of hot coals and put them upon his breast. They threatened his aged wife with instant death if she made an alarm or came out of the house. He never spoke so far as his wife knew, but lived until about 3 o'clock on Friday, tortured by the burning coals. He was about 75 years of age. His remains were kept until Saturday afternoon, but no Cororer or Trial Justice appeared to hold an inquest. The case would not bear investigation. The gang seized three others on the place: one they whipped most shockingly, the other two, who escaped, were fired at several times. The next night several men were whipped on the Air Line Railroad work, a few miles from Spartanburg. Since last October, no week has passed during which some outrage of the kind has not been perpetrated in this country, and yet, according to the Democratic paper there, all has been peaceable. The pro tem. editor of the Spartanburg Republican, a few weeks since, spoke of this country as remarkable for quiet. The shooting of thirty or forty persons, and whipping of hundreds does not disturb the serene quiet of the Democracy in the least. The recent Ku-Klux bill of the United States was most furiously denounced on last Monday in the Democratic meeting to elect delegates to the May convention, What better have they to offer? It is hoped that the assembled wisdom and greatness of the leading men of the Democracy will propose some remedy for the terrible outrages going on in this State.

Ridiculous Ruskin.

The N. Y. Times says: Mr. Ruskin is the veritable "Mrs. Partington" of modern political economy. Half a dozen of cabbage-gardens is the metaphorical broom with which the author of Modern Painters proposes to sweep back a whole Atlantic of progress. In Mr. Ruskin's estimation, the world was happy before it was cursed with Watt and Stephenson. The steam-engine and the railroad have been, he believes, forces of diabolical origin and purpose, and Arcadia can only be restored by abolishing them. Ruskin's model farmers are to abjure the aid of machinery as they would that of the fiend, are to transport the fruits of the earth on the backs of their own beasts of burden, and are to shun a railroad car as they would deadly poison. Whether they are to be permitted to wear clothes on whose production machinery has been employed, we are not informed, nor does this benefactor of English workmen give them any hints as to the manufacture of hard-chipped flint spades, after the manner of their ancestors. Doubtless, all this will be explained next Christmas, when Mr. Ruskin sets aside the tenth part of his earthly possessions to establish his paradise of unperverted labor, unless, indeed, the friends of the philosopher apply for a commission de lunatico in the interval.

A Giant Dug Up in Jeffersonville.

Yesterday morning the workmen in the new fire cistern being dug at the intersection of Ohio avenue and Seventh street, in Jeffersonville, exhumed some fossil remains, at a distance of near twelve feet from the surface of the ground, of what appeared as a part of the skeleton of a giant at least twelve feet high. The skull was badly broken by the workmen, but sufficient of the jaws and face bones were saved to show that it was the remains of a monstrous-sized human being. A shin bone was dug up which measured near three feet in length. Unfortunately, the remains were carried away, piece by piece, by persons not appreciating the value of them, until not a piece except the lower jaw remained, which contained four large grinders, each a half an inch in length.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Hunting for Sunken Treasure.

The Brig Nellie Gray is fitting at Norwich, Conn., and will soon sail from New York, on a most romantic, and, if successful, profitable expedition. Since 1815 there has lain on the bottom of Camana Bay, Venezuela, the wreck of a Spanish war vessel, the San Pedro de Alcantara, which, as flagship of a fleet of one hundred sail, bore also three millions in gold for the payment of the forces sent by Spain to subdue her rebellious colonies. The attempt failing, the San Pedro was about to return to Spain, laden with loyalists and the treasures of a kingdom as well as the spoils of countless churches and convents, when the firing and explosion of her magizine sent her to the bottom in ten fathoms of water. Since then various attempts, with rude appliances, have been made to recover the treasures, estimated at $5,000,000, but only some $300,000 have been obtained. The proposed expedition is undertaken by the American Submarine Company, of which General Burnside is President, and George W. Fuller, the most experienced submarine explorer in the country, is Superintendent. The brig is filled with all the appliances of modern Science, and by means of his improved machinery, and especially his submarine lantern, Mr. Fuller is confident that he can tear to pieces the wreck, secure the most valuable treasure, and by dredging recover the scattered coins.

HARD RUBBER TRUSSES.

You have observed posted up around the city placards of hard rubber trusses, which are said to retain any rupture, however severe, with the additional advantage that they will not rust or corrode. Dr. Keyser, at 167 Liberty street, has these, as well as every other kind of truss that may be needed for the relief and cure of hernia or rupture of the bowels. Let the afflicted remember as they goalong that Dr. Keyser's after all is the place. If you want cheap trusses, from two dollars and upwards, the Doctor has them, as well as the best and highest quality that can be procured in the United States.

To the ruptured, there is nothing of equal importance to have a well fitting and properly adjusted instrument, therefore let not persons who have a breach or rupture waste valuable time in trying useless and inefficient remedies, when a sure and absolute relief can be obtained at Dr. Keyser's Truss Depot, 167 Liberty street, which is at the same time an office for the cure of every chronic disease. Cut this advertisement out, so that you can remember the place. my23

THE HOUSEHOLD TONIC.

The efficacy of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters as a specific for recruiting the enfeebled body and cheering the desponding mind has passed into a proverb. In the United States, where this marvelous tonic has borne down all opposition and eclipsed all rivalry, the demand for it has annually increased in a heavier and heavier ratio for years, until at last, the regular sales of this preparation exceed those of all other stomachics combined. Eminent members of the medical profession and hospital surgeons without number have candidly admitted that the pharmacopœia of the faculty contains no prescription that produces such beneficial effects in dyspepsia, general debility and nervous diseases, as Hostetter's Bitters. To use the language of a venerable physician of New York, "The Bitters are the purest stimulant and the safest tonic we have. But the uses of the great vegetable antidote are much more comprehensive than such praise would imply. As a preparatory antidote to epidemic disease, a genial stimulant, a promoter of constitutional vigor, an appetizer, a stomachic, and a remedy for nervous debility, no medicinal preparation has ever attained the reputation of Hostetter's Bitters. It is the household tonic of the American people, and in all human probability will be so for centuries to come. The magnates of science recognize its merits: and that it is emphatically the medicine of the masses, is proved by its vast and ever increasing sales.

Johnstown Improved Hydraulic Cement,
This Cement is equal to any cement made in the United States, in many respects better than the Louisville Cement or the Rosendale, and decidedly better in all respects than the Uniontown or Akron Cement. It has a smaller amount of shrinkage, sets gradual, bears as much sand as any cement made, and gets as hard; stands frost well it has all the qualities that hydraulic cement should have. The facilities for getting this cement s greater than all others in this market, less freight and fresher, which is an important matter Having but a short distance to ship we can therefore sell cheaper than any other in the market.

OFFICE OF CITY ENGINEER AND SURVEYOR,
PITTSBURGH, May 17, 1871.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS. —All persons owning property between Liberty street and the Allegheny River, and between the Point and Eleventh street, are requested to leave the deeds of their property at this office for the purpose of having them registered in accordance with Section 4 of an Act of Assembly entitled, "An Act Providing for the Registry of Lots in the City of Pittsburgh."

SEC. 4. It shall be the duty of all owners of houses and lots, or tracts of ground, to furnish forthwith descriptions of their property to the Engineer to aid him in making up his book of plans, and whensoever such descriptions shall have been furnished, and the certificate of the Engineer or his assistant shall be received, no property so returned shall be subject to sale for taxes or other municipal claims thereafter to accrue as lien of record thereon, except as in the name of the owner returned; and after recovery of suit and service of the writ on him, as in case of a summons scire facias, or other appropriate writ, should this be neglected or omitted, or not complied with as promptly as may be deemed necessary to insure the early completion of the plans; then after one months' notice by public advertisement in the official papers of the city to the owners of real estate in said city not registered, and a written or printed notice shall have been served on the owner or owners, or delivered upon the property, should they fail to have such record made, then and in that case, they shall be subject to a fine of five dollars for each month of such neglect, dating from the termination of said advertisement, and in case the same be neglected for the space of six months, a lien for the accumulated fines and costs shall be filed and collected as municipal claims are now or may be hereafter by law collected, the said fines to be paid into the city treasury; the notices to parties failing to register property may be given so as to embrace the property of any particular ward or section, or any number of wards, or the city at large, at the discretion of the said City Engineer.

NEW YORK, May 23, 1871.

Gold dull and heavy, opening at 111⅜, selling down at the close to 111⅛@111¼. Loans made at from 1 to 1⅛ per cent. Clearances forty-five millions. Governments are in sympathy with gold, and have declined a fraction this morning, but at the close were dull at about the opening prices. Sterling weaker in consequence of banker's Reading road drawing sixty day bills at 110 on account. Reading loan stocks opened quiet but strong, but about noon declined from ⅛ to ⅜ per cent., when cliques took hold and rallied the market, which closed firm at the highest figures of the day in most instances. Lake Shore and Rock Island attracted most attention, the latter selling at the highest point of the season. Next in point of interest were Erie, New York, Ohio, Union Pacific Mail, and Western Union; the wildest fluctuation of the day being in Union Pacific, which ranged 36⅜ and 34⅜. New York Central fell off from 114 to 112⅜ on small transaction. The decline was due to the denial of the recent sensational reports in regard to that road. Coal stocks are active and higher. Express shares dull and steady. Money easy 3@4 per cent. Southern bonds, Tennessee and South Carolinas (new) were strong and active, the remainder dull and steady.

Sterling exchange 110⅜.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, May 23, 1871.

ASHES—Common Soda Ash, 4⅛@4⅜; refined do. 4⅜@4⅜; Pearls, 9@9⅜; Pots, 7⅜@7⅜.

BUTTER—Continues slow and dull with a supply largely in excess of the demand, and we again reduce our quotations, 12@14 for fair to good and 15@16c for strictly prime. The receipts have fallen off very materially, and some dealers are inclined to the belief that there will be an improvement before long, both in the demand and prices.

BEANS—The supply is pretty well reduced, but the demand is light and prices unchanged, $1,25@1,75 per bushel.

BROOM CORN—Very dull; we can report occasional small sales at 5@6, as to quality.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 28@30 cts.

CANDLES—Quoted at 12 cts for mould, and 19 for star.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2,50@2,75 per bbl; Johnstown, $2,25; Rosendale, $4,00@4,50; Calcined Plaster, $4,50; Land Plaster, $3,50@3,75.

CORN MEAL—Is quiet; small sales, in store, at 85@90 cts per bushel.

CANNED GOODS—Demand fair but prices are weak and drooping; 3 lb cans Peaches, $3,25@3,50 per dozen; 2 lb do. $2,25@2,50; Tomatoes, $2,62⅜; Corn, $2,50@2,75, the outside figure for Winslow's.

CHEESE—Continues to come in freely and and prices are weak and drooping; we now quote prime new New York Goshen, at 16; Ohio Goshen, 15c; Ohio Factory, 15c; Dairy, 12@13c.

CARBON OIL—Is firm and tending upward, though the jobbing demand, as is always the case, at this season of the year, is light; we now quote standard brands at 22⅜—usual advance for small lots.

COUNTRY BACON—The demand is improving slightly but there is no improvement in prices; sales shoulders at 6@6⅜; ribbed sides, 7@7⅜; clear sides, 8@8⅜; hams, 10@12, as to quality and condition; country lard dull at 9@10⅜.

EGGS—Continue firm with a demand in excess of the supply, and there is now no difficulty in realizing 18 cts for fresh. At no time perhaps for two months has the stock in this market been so reduced, and in consequence, a still further advance is not improbable. They seem to be doing better in nearly of the leading markets, both east and west, and this, of course, is not without its effect there.

FEATHERS—Scarce and in demand, with sales of No. 1 live geese feathers at 74@75—usual advance in a small way.

FLOUR—Is firm and moderately active but without quotable change in prices. We continue to quote good to choice red winter at $7,00@7,25; white wheat, $7,50; good spring extras, $7,00, and choice Minnesota baker's flour $7 25.

FRUITS—Green apples, season about over, occasional small sales at $6@7 per bbl. Dried apples quoted at 5@7 cts. Dried peaches, scarce, but the demand seems to be falling off; quarters, 10@11; mixed, 12@13, and halves 14@15. Sales of Messina oranges at $6.25 per box and Lemons at $6,00@6.50. Prunes lower, 10⅜ for Turkish and 12 for French; Currants, 10⅜@11 cts. Layer raisins, $3 per box; Valencia's, 13 cts per lb.

GREEN TRUCK—Sales of new potatoes at $7,50@8,00 per bbl; Cabbage at $4; Peas, $8; Strawberries, 20@30 cts per quart.

GRAIN—The market for Wheat is a shade easier under the influence of the dispatches from both east and west, on Monday, though, as yet, there is no quotable change in prices, $1,40@1,45 for red and $1,50@1,55 for white. It is now thought that the new crop has passed the crisis, and, in consequence, there is a general expectation of lower prices. Oats firm, but quiet and unchanged—58@59 buying, and 60@61 selling—small lots, in store, 63@65. The supply in this market, although by no means large, seems to be sufficient to supply the present demand. Corn is reported quiet and unchanged—receipts and supply light, but the demand is light and entirely local; we continue to quote at 68@70 for mixed to prime yellow, and 71@72 for prime. No Rye offering and none coming in; dealers are paying, and are seemingly indifferent about buying, even at anything over the even dollar. We are reported sales of Barley at 80@85 for spring and 90@95 for fall.

GROCERIES—Market is fairly active but there are no important changes to make in quotations. As noted in our last report, sugars continue firm, particularly in the east, though there is no advance. Choice Molasses, Syrups and Carolina Rice, firm and held at full prices. An advance in refined sugars is not improbable within the next few days.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 19; Prime, 18; Good, 17; Fair, 16⅜; Roasting, 16@16⅜.

SYRUPS AND DRIPS—White Honey, 72; Havemyer & Elders, 72; Silver Drips, 60; Lovering, 63; other grades, 45@55.

SUGARS—Choice New Orleans, 11⅜; prime, 11⅜ good, 10⅜; fully fair, 10⅜; Porto Rico Sugars, 10⅜@11⅜; Cuba, 10@11; Demarara, 11⅜@12⅜.

REFINED SUGARS—Hard Sugars, 14; A Coffee, 13; "B," 12⅜; Extra C, 12⅜; C. yellow, 12⅜.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, choice, 70; prime, 68; good, 65.

TEAS—Fancy Young Hyson, $1 40; Good, $1 10; Fair $1. Lower grades down to 70cts G. P. Fancy, $1 50; good, $1 25; fair, $1 10; Imperial Fancy, $1 40; good, $1 25; fair, $1; Oolong fancy, $1 25; good, 80cts; fair, 60@70c; Souchong fancy, $1 20; good, 90c; fair, 70@80c, Japan Fancy, $1; good, 90c; fair, 75c.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 10c; prime, 9⅜c; good, 9c.

SPICES—Grain Pepper, 22c. Pimento, 17c. Cloves, 20c. Cassia, 55c.

HAY—Is scarce and higher; we are reported sales from country wagons at $15@22 per ton, as to quality. Baled is being sold on wharf at $15@18.

HUSKS—Quoted at 2⅜@2⅜ cts.

HIDES—Green salted (all weights) 10⅜@11⅜; green butchers (cow and steer) 7@8; green salted kip 14@16; do calf, 16@18 Dry.

HEMP—Rough Kentucky, $175 per ton; dressed, 14 cts per lb.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland at $3,25 per bbl and eastern at $1,75.

MAPLE SYRUP—We can report regular sales at $1,50@1,70, in gallon jugs, as to quality.

MILL FEED—Sales from store, in a jobbing way, at $1,40@1,50 for Bran; $1,65@1,85 for Middlings and $2,50 for oil meal.

OILS—Lard Oil has still further declined, and we now quote No. 1, at 90@92 in a jobbing way, and 87@88 for 15 or 20 barrel lots.

POSTS—Sales cedar posts at 45@50 cts each.

PEA NUTS—Higher, 9⅜@10 cts.

PROVISIONS—Trade moderately active but prices are still tending downward. Plain shoulders, 7⅜; sugar cured canvassed do, 10⅜; ribbed sides, 9⅜; clear do, 10⅜; Breakfast Bacon, 13⅜ plain; 14⅜ canvassed; sugar cured canvassed hams, 15. Lard, 11⅜ in tcs and 12⅜ in buckets and kegs. Dried Beef, 18@19, plain and canvassed. Mess Pork, $19,00@19,50.

POULTRY—Live chickens are coming in more freely and we reduce our quotations to 65@70 cts per pair.

POTATOES—The market is firmer, in consequence of diminished receipts and a reduced supply, but there is no advance as yet in prices. Prime Lake Shore Peach Blows, $1,25 per bushel; western, $1,10@1.15.

SEEDS—There is little or no inquiry for either Clover or Timothy Seeds and the season may be regarded as over. Flaxseed is scarce and wanted—may be quoted firm at $2,20@2,25.

SUMAC—Sales Tennessee Sumac at 4⅜ cts.

TALLOW—Rendered, 8@8⅜.

WILLOWS—Sales Kentucky willows at 10

PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, May 23, 1871.

We have to report a continued strong market, though there is but comparatively little doing, the sales for some days past having been unusually light; prices, however, for both crude and refined, are still tending upward. There is still considerable inquiry reported for refined, but, for some reason or other, the operations are light; it is probable that refiners are impressed with the belief that the top has not been touched, that there is likely to be a still further advance, and, in consequence, they may be holding back so as to be able to take advantage of a further advance should it take place. It is a noticeable fact that the policy which was pursued for several years, of selling long lines ahead, has been pretty well ignored this year, and it is no doubt all the better; thus far the operations in refined have been confined mainly to near by months; and it is also worthy of notice, that contracts now represent oil not differences, indicating a healthy and legitimate business and an absence of that wild speculative mania, which characterized the market, and at the same time injured the trade, some years ago.

CRUDE.

Sales 1,000 seller all-year at 12; and 500 at Foster, at $4,85. Seller May or until July may be quoted at 12⅜@12⅜; seller all year 12; buyer all year 13⅜.

REFINED.

Continues firm and prices are still tending upward. Sale of 3,000 each July and August at 25⅜. Following are the latest quotations: May, 25; June, 25⅜@25⅜; July, 25⅜@25⅜. June to September, sold in Philadelphia, at 26.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point with three feet in the channel last evening. Weather clear and pleasant.

There has been no arrivals since the date of our last report. The Arlington from Cincinnati, was due last night.

The Julia No. 2 departed for Zanesville last evening with an average trip.

The Bellevernon, with two barges in tow, passed the Steubenville bridge yesterday forenoon all right. She had about all the freight she could carry on the water.

The Lorena will depart for St. Louis, on the first rise.

The St. Marys is laid up at Cincinnati.

The Wauanita left St. Louis for Pittsburgh on Monday.

—The Sioux City Journal of Saturday says: The river is still falling. A dispatch received from Benton by Com. Hazlett says the river rose a foot at that place on Wednesday. The prospects for a good boating season are very promising.

The Commodore will be ready to do business in his new warehouse on Monday next.

The Peninah and Andrew Ackley are due from above, and the Flirt from St. Louis.

The Miner is due from Whetstone. The freight for her return trip is awaiting her arrival.

The Mollie Moore left Sioux City for Whetstone at 3 o'clock a. m. May 17th, and the Katie P. Kountz left 10 minutes behind the Mollie. The Katie's destination is Fort Benton.

The Mollie Moore had on board 280 tons, and the Katie P. Kountz 311 tons, drawing 3½ feet of water. How is this for high?

—The Memphis Appeal of Saturday says: "Steamboatmen freely discussed the importance, yesterday, of the Arkansas lines to Memphis. If the packets are withdrawn, it will be a fearful blow to Memphis. All branches of trade would suffer by such a movement. A communication from a Front row merchant, in another column, gives some plain facts as regards the Arkansas trade and necessity of sustaining the aforesaid lines. While our merchants are moving in this matter, the City Council should get together, and not only reduce the wharfage tax, but improve the levee with the money, which should be set aside for that purpose. Our informant as regards the decision in the Des Arc case was incorrect. A case is pending as regards the above, but we are informed by the attorneys of Mr. Martin Walt, sole owner at the time the sale was made, that Mr. Kehoe's claim cannot be sustained. As regard the bond, it was given, as in all cases of private sales of steamers, an indemnity bond against debts. We erred also in estimating what she made. The Commodore says her profits would not purchase a square meal. And, again, R. P. Walt, was not interested in her in any way. Such being the case, Mr. Kehoe was not made happy."

—We condense the following from the Nashville Union and American: "The John Lumsden, sunk in the Cumberland River Thursday morning last, had 317 hhds tobacco, 12,000 feet lumber, 15 tons pig iron, 15 tons car-wheels, and 30 tons miscellaneous freight. Several race-horses were also on board, and among others Barney Williams, which are supposed to be lost. The tobacco and some of the other freight is insured, but the pig-iron and car-wheels it was understood are not. As soon as the leak was discovered, the boat was landed, and the passengers, forty in number, were safely landed. She was insured for $15,000, of which $10,000 is in Cincinnati companies. She will be raised immediately. The Lumsden was almost new, this being only her second season."

—A late New Orleans paper says: "The past month or two has witnessed the cheapest tariff of Western-bound freight per river that has ever been experienced in the St. Louis and New Orleans trade. A steady opposition between two wealthy packet companies has caused this, and though the benefit was undoubtedly great to the shipper, the packet companies were losers as common carriers. Yesterday freights to St. Louis were advanced to twenty-five cents per hundred on heavy, and thirty cents per hundred on light goods. The present rates are generous, and reflect much credit on the managers of our leading packet companies."

—The New Orleans Picayune says: Yesterday the St. Louis steamers, owing to the dullness in the trade and the enormous expenses they are now under, have concluded (and we think to the advantage of all concerned) to fix their prices of freight as follows: Sugar, coffee, etc., 25c per 100 pounds; forwarding goods, 25c and 30c, per 100 pounds. The above rates we do not think extravagant, and possibly may help our steamboatmen to pay their way.

—Captain G. W. Ebert, of the Mollie Ebert, is one of the oldest, if not the oldest, of steamboatmen in the Cincinnati and New Orleans trade. In thirty years he has not missed a season—a fact few steamboatmen can lay claim to—and as a thoroughly practical and competent steamboatman he has but few equals, and we may safely say no superior.

—The St. Louis city engineer reports the work done on the wharf and harbor, from April, 1870, to April, 1871, as amounting to $172.700 67, and the amount estimated as necessary the work now under contract, $133,418 99.

—Captain John S. Tennyson left St. Louis Friday for Arkadelphia, Arkansas, to superintend the construction of boats for the improvement of the Ouachita and Little Missouri rivers.

—Mr. Wm. A. Henry, of the St. Louis Dock company, was presented with a gold watch and chain last week by Capt. Henry Adkins, on behalf of friends connected with the company.

—Harry Otis Dexter, son of Captain H. T. Dexter, and second clerk of the Quickstep, was married at Evansville, last week, to Miss Sue Rutter.

—The Frank Pargoud is again ready for business. She starts out to make weekly trips in the Vickburg trade. Twice a week is too hard work.

—There are eight bridges between St. Louis and St. Paul, the most dangerous of which are the Rock Island and Hastings, as they cross the river at angles.

—The Arrowline takes the place of the Big Sunflower, in the Sunflower river trade, from Vicksburg.

—The W. S. Pike takes the place of the Natchez when she withdraws from the Vicksburg trade.

—Mrs. Littell, the widow of an old and widely known river captain, died suddenly in Louisville last Friday.

—The annual wharf report of Cairo shows that 4,455 steamboats arrived at the port of Cairo during the year 1870.

—A new ferry across the Ohio river has been established at Wellsville.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞CONSUMPTION.

Its Cure and its Preventive.

BY J. H. SCHENCK, M.D.

Many a human being has passed away, for whose death there was no other reason than the neglect of known and indisputably proven means of cure. Those near and dear to family and friends are sleeping the dreamless slumber into which, had they calmly adopted and availed themselves of his wonderfully efficacious medicines, they would not have fallen.

DR. JOSEPH H. SCHENCK'S SIMPLE TREATMENT.

Dr. Schenck has in his own case proved that wherever sufficient vitality remains, that vitality, by his medicines and his directions for their use, is quickened into healthful vigor.

In this statement there is nothing presumptuous. To the faith of the invalid is made no representation that is not a thousand times substantiated by living and visible works. The theory of the cure by Dr. Schenck's medicines is as simple as it is unfailing. Its philosophy requires no argument. It is self-assuring, self-convincing.

The Sea-weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are the first two weapons with which the citadel of the malady is assailed. Two-thirds of the cases of consumption originate in dyspepsia and a functionally disordered liver. With this condition the bronchial tubes "sympathize" with the stomach. They respond to the morbific action of the liver. Here then comes the culminating result, and the setting in, with all its distressing symptoms of

CONSUMPTION.

The Mandrake Pills are composed of one of Nature's noblest gifts—the Podophillum Peltatum. They possess all the blood-searching, alterative properties of calomel, but, unlike calomel, they

"LEAVE NO STING BEHIND."

The work of cure is now beginning. The vitiated and mucous deposits in the bowels and the alimentary canal are ejected. The liver, like a clock, is wound up. It arouses from its torpidity. The stomach acts responsively, and the patient begins to feel that he is getting, at last,

A SUPPLY OF GOOD BLOOD.

The Sea-weed Tonic, in conjunction with the Pills, permeates and assimilates with the food. Chylification is now progressing without its previous tortures. Digestion becomes painless, and the cure is seen to be at hand. There is no more flatulence, no exacerbation of the stomach. An appetite sets in.

Now comes the greatest Blood Purifier ever yet given by an indulgent father to suffering man. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup comes in to perform its functions and to hasten and complete the cure. It enters at once upon its work. Nature can not be cheated. It collects and ripens the impaired and diseased portions of the lungs. In the form of gatherings, it prepares them for expectoration, and lo! in a very short time the malady is vanquished, the rotten throne that it occupied is renovated and made new, and the patient, in all the dignity of regained vigor, steps forth to enjoy the manhood or womanhood that was GIVEN UP AS LOST.

The second thing is, the patients must stay in a warm room until they get well; it is almost impossible to prevent taking cold when the lungs are diseased, but it must be prevented or a cure cannot be effected. Fresh air and riding out, especially in this section of the country in the fall and winter season, are all wrong. Physicians who recommend that course lose their patients, if their lungs are badly diseased, and yet, because they are in the house they must not sit down quiet; they must walk about the room as much and as fast as the strength will bear, to get up a good circulation of the blood. The patients must keep in good spirits—be determined to get well. This has a great deal to do with the appetite, and is the great point to gain.

To despair of cure after such evidence of its possibility in the worst cases, and moral certainty in all others, is sinful. Dr. Schenck's personal statement to the Faculty of his own cure was in these modest words:

"Many years ago I was in the last stages of consumption; confined to my bed, and at one time my physicians thought that I could not live a week; then, like a drowning man catching at straws, I heard of and obtained the preparations which I now offer to the public, and they made a perfect cure of me. It seemed to me that I could feel them penetrate my whole system. They soon ripened the matter in my lungs, and I would spit up more than a pint of offensive yellow matter every morning for a long time.

"As soon as that began to subside, my cough, fever, pains and night sweats all began to leave me, and my appetite became so great that it was with difficulty that I could keep from eating too much. I soon gained my strength, and have grown in flesh ever since.

"I was weighed shortly after my recovery," added the Doctor, "then looking like a mere skeleton; my weight was only ninety-seven pounds; my present weight is two hundred and twenty-five (225) pounds, and for years I have enjoyed uninterrupted health."

Dr. Schenck has discontinued his professional visits to New York and Boston. He or his son, Dr. J. H. Schenck, Jr., still continue to see patients at their office No. 15 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M. Those who wish a thorough examination with the Respirometer will be charged $5. The Respirometer declares the exact condition of the lungs, and patients can readily learn whether they are curable or not.

The directions for taking the medicines are adapted to the intelligence even of a child. Follow these directions, and kind Nature will do the rest, excepting that in some cases the Mandrake Pills are to be taken in increased doses; the three medicines need no other accompaniments than the ample instructions that accompany them. First, create appetite. Of returning health hunger is the most welcome symptom. When it comes, as it will come, let the despairing at once be of good cheer. Good blood at once follows, the cough loosens, the night sweat is abated. In a short time both of these morbid symptoms are gone forever.

Dr. Schenck's medicines are constantly kept in tens of thousands of families. As a laxative or purgative the Mandrake Pills are a standard preparation; while the Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure of coughs and colds, may be regarded as a prophylacteric against consumption in any of its forms.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Sea-weed Tonic $1 50 a bottle, or $7 50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists and dealers. ap18:p3-MWF ☞SICK AND AFFLICTED, READ!—Time must necessarily be the final test of everything. The many failures pass out of sight and thought; only the few successes are remembered. This is especially true of the science of medicine. A volume would hardly contain the mere names of the medicinal compounds devised during this century, yet the successful ones may be told upon the fingers. Of these latter the best proved are SWAYNE'S FAMILY MEDICINES, which have been tested by more than thirty years of steadily increasing use throughout the globe, and have received the warmest commendation and support from the most enlightened members of the Medical Faculty in every school of practice.

☞SWAYNE'S PANACEA FOR THE BLOOD.—A disordered state of the blood is the cause of many serious complaints, such as Scrofula, Cancerous and Tuberculous Affections, White Swelling, Goitre, &c. "SWAYNE'S PANACEA" gives new life, new blood, renewed vigor, removes every vestige of scrofulous, ulcerous and syphilitic complaints, has a world-wide reputation as a blood purifier.

☞SWAYNE'S TAR PILLS.—Most perfect Purgative, Aperient, Anti-Bilious and Cathartic Medicine known to medical science. Cure Headache, Piles, Fits, Fevers, Disordered Liver, Costiveness. Purify the blood and cleanse the stomach and bowels of all impurities. 30 Pills in a box. Price, 25 cents; five for one dollar.

☞DR. SWAYNE'S COMP. SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.—Many valuable lives are saved by a timely use of this great remedy. A trial of many years has proved to the world that it promptly cures Cough, Colds, Consumption, Bronchial and Asthmatic Affections, Liver Complaint, Night Sweats, Blood Spitting, Weak Breast, all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs.

☞SWAYNE'S OINTMENT for Skin DISEASES.—Tetter, Itch, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Scaly Eruptions, Blotched Disfiguration on the face, Barbers Itch, Erysipelas, Ringworm, Army Itch, Itching Piles, all skin diseases are quickly cured by this "all-healing ointment." No case so obstinate or long standing it will not cure. Ask for "SWAYNE'S OINTMENT," and use no other. A clear skin, free from all blotches, is sure to be the result. The above valuable medicines prepared only by DR. SWAYNE & SON, Philadelphia, and sold wholesale and retail by McCLARRAN & McKENNAN, Druggists, 85 Market street, and opp. Postoffice, Pittsburgh, and all dealers in medicines everywhere. my16:MWF GRATES. GRATES.

Keep Your Houses Clean,

AND

SAVE FUEL.

BY USING THE

Wellman Patent Reflector

STOVE AND GRATE.

Which Stand Without a Rival.

The WELLMAN STOVE is furnished with the "REFLECTOR GRATE," and possesses all the advantages of an open fire place; it is specially adapted to houses where the flues are too small to admit a grate, and affords all the comforts of a CHEERFUL OPEN FIRE.

1st. As a radiator of heat it has double the intensity of any other grate.

2d. It is unquestionably the most cleanly—no soot or ashes escaping into the room—which, in the ordinary Grate, proves so detrimental to carpets and furniture.

3d. The combustion is perfect. There is no waste in unburnt cinders—every ounce of the fuel is so completely consumed, that nothing remains but the finest ashes.

4th. As an economizer of fuel—there being an actual saving of at least 25 per cent.

5th. It is highly ornamental.

6th. It is set so deep in the chimney, that it is much safer, and also less liable to puff in windy weather.

7th. A slight motion of the shaker cleanses the entire fire, and causes it to burn with great brilliancy and intensity of heat.

Samples may be seen and references had at the store of W. BARNES, corner of 3d avenue and Market street, Pittsburgh; W. F. GOODWIN, 66 Federal street, Allegheny, or at the FOUNDRY, corner Duquesne Way and Water street, Pittsburgh.

Parties who are building, or who contemplate changing Grates, are respectfully requested to examine "The Wellman." Satisfaction guaranteed in all cases.

HOME NEWS.

People's Monthly out to-day.

Thomas Clark, a man employed at the Keystone Bridge Works, was seriously injured by a piece of steel penetrating his breast.

James Ballentine of Allegheny City, will please send his address to John A. Stewart, St. James Hotel, 405 and 407 Liberty street, Pittsburgh.

Grace Church, corner of Grant and Webster streets, was entered Sunday night and the contribution box taken. It only contained a few dollars.

Fire.—A slight fire occurred about one o'clock this morning at the Flint Glass Works of Messrs. Reddick & Co., Bluff street, near Gist. The loss is small.

Post 88, G. A. R., request donations of flowers for decoration day, to be left at Hall, corner of Juniata street and Beaver avenue, before 7 o'clock, A. M., May 30th.

Sleepy Driver.—'Squire Barker was informed that Frank Nicholson was drunk and asleep on his wagon, on Carson street, Birmingham. He received an awakening and a fine of five dollars and costs.

Mr. Jerry Davis has been awarded the contract for building the Peeble's school house at Hazlewood, Twenty-third ward, for which he will receive $18,500. It is to be of brick, two stories high and contain seven rooms.

Committed for Trial.—Edward Bradford, who is charged with being one of the parties who beat officer Graham so badly some months ago, was committed to jail yesterday morning by Mayor Brush to await trial at Court.

In our For Sale column will be found the advertisement of James Godfrey offering the stock and fixtures of his hardware store, No. 44 Ohio street, Allegheny, for sale. A great bargain here for somebody, with a limited capital and willing to work.

Killing Pigeons.—Albert Radtz made information yesterday before Alderman Koenig, charging Thomas Rodgers with malicious mischief. It appears that Rodgers felt sportsman-like and killed two pigeons belonging to Radtz. Held for a hearing.

About a Coat.—William Wheeler was before Alderman Taylor yesterday charged with larceny by bailee. It seems that Wheeler borrowed from Barley a coat valued at twenty-five dollars, and seemed disposed to keep it. He was held for a hearing.

A small boy aged seven years, son of Mr. A. DeRoy residing at 493 Penn avenue, met with a very painful accident on Monday evening. The little fellow was running through the hall and tripped and fell, and in the fall nearly bit his tongue off besides cutting his chin badly.

Officers Elected.—The following officers were elected at a recent meeting of the Little Saw Mill Run Railroad Company to serve for the ensuing year: President—Wm. Espy. Directors—Jonathan Lenz, N. P. Fetterman, John Haworth, Wm. H. Brown, Jacob Painter, Richard Dewhurst.

Jesse Williams made information before Justice Barker, charging Jennie Smith and Clarissa Williams with carrying off a lot of household goods, consisting of pots, pans, kettles, &c., after he had levied on them. Jennie declined to appear in the magistrate's office until she had put on a "Sunday suit."

Disorderly.—Officer Stemler was informed by Pat Farrick that he had been maliciously treated by Pat Keeney and Al. Ward. It is alleged that they went to his house drunk and disorderly, upset a ladder, smashed in his bake oven, and endangered the lives of his children. Justice Barker issued warrants for the accused.

Assault and Battery.—Morris Finnessy, before Alderman Koenig, charged two men named Samuel and Michael Kanely and others with assault and battery. It appears that the difficulty occurred near Alderman Koenig's office, and that the plaintiff was knocked down. The parties were arrested and held for a hearing.

Into a Flour Barrel.—George Lentz was recently visited by Nicholas Ruffer. It appears that Nicholas came into Lentz's house in a staggering condition, staggered around in different directions, and finally landed in a flour barrel. After coming out he indulged in some highfalutin swearing. He was brought before Justice Barker.

A Prize Fight.—On Monday evening a prize fight took place at Frankstown, on the P. & C. R. R., between a man from Birmingham and one from Frankstown. At the end of the third round the men clinched and fell, the Birmingham man being under. His shoulder was dislocated. There were nearly three hundred spectators present.

Mr. Robert Dilworth, of the Second ward, Allegheny, and for a long time past, the clerk in the Common branch of Allegheny Councils, is out in a card announcing himself a candidate for Assembly. Mr. D., is prompt and energetic in the discharge of his duties, methodical and systematic and we doubt not would acquit himself well if sent to Harrisburg.

Fainting Fit.—About ten o'clock yesterday morning an old lady named Mrs. Robinson, while standing on the City Hall steps, Allegheny, talking to her daughter-in-law, was seized with a fainting fit and fell down two or three steps. She was carried into the library, where the proper restoratives were applied, and after a short time she was able to go to her home.

Mr. S. S. D. Thompson, of the Fifth ward, Allegheny, is announced this morning as a candidate for Assembly from the North side. We can only repeat what we have said before, that he will make an unexceptionable member. Thoroughly honest, of good ability, of sound judgment and a complete training in business matters, he will reflect credit on himself and his constituents if elected.

Meeting This Evening.—A meeting of the Chief and Division Marshals, appointed by the several Posts of the G. A. R., and their respective staffs, will be held at the office of Major Montooth, Grant street, to complete arrangements for the memorial ceremonies. A full attendance is desired not only of the persons designated, but of all citizens who intend to participate in the ceremonies.

Double Charge.—Mrs. Rebecca Frank made information before Alderman Moreland yesterday charging Mrs. Loper with fornix, etc., with one Joseph Hepter. Mrs. Loper it appears is a widow between seventy and eighty years of age, and occupies the basement room of Mrs. Frank's house. She also charged Hepter before the same magistrate with adultery, alleging that his wife is now living. The parties reside on Twentieth street. Tenth ward. Warrant issued.

Pick pocket Arrested.—On Monday night officer Fowler in passing a saloon on Water street in which there was quite a crowd of persons, detected a man named John Horn in the act of picking the pocket of one of the party. The officer approached him when he ran away, but was finally captured and taken to the lock-up. At the hearing yesterday morning there being no one to make an information against him for pocket picking, the Mayor sentenced him to the work house for thirty days on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Narrow Escape.—In Brownstown, on Monday evening, a man named Wolf made a very narrow escape from death. He was standing looking at a number of men throwing hatchets. One of them missed the mark, and going beyond the sharp corner, struck him on the side of the head, and glancing, cut a piece of the scalp entirely out. Luckily, the skull was neither fractured nor cut. A physician was summoned who dressed the wound, and nothing serious will result from the bad marksmanship.

Perhaps Fatal Fall.—A man named Chislett who is employed as a machinist at the Fort Pitt Foundry in the Ninth ward, met with a severe and possibly fatal accident. He had gone up on a plank about thirty-five feet from the ground to fix some machinery. The plank gave away and he was precipitated to the ground, sustaining very severe injuries. He was picked up immediately and conveyed to his residence in Allegheny city. It is feared that he sustained severe internal injuries, besides breaking his legs in three places.

The next monthly meeting of the Allegheny City Teachers' Association will be held in the Fourth Ward School Building, house No. 5, near Chestnut and Ohio streets, on Friday evening, May 26th, at 7½ o'clock.

Order of exercises: Music. Miscellaneous Business. "What is the best method of dismissing school?" To be answered by Miss Lottie V. Gemmil, Third ward. Lecture, by Prof. J. R. Newell. Music. "What is the best method of securing punctuality?" To be answered by B. F. Gamber, Sixth ward. "How do you cultivate a loud and natural tone of voice in pupils?" Answered by Miss M. F. Ackley, First ward. "How many studies should a scholar pursue at a time?" Answered by John Morrow, Fourth ward. Music. Opportunity will be given for a general discussion on the above queries.

Double Charge.

Wm. Ditmore charged John Fitzpatrick yesterday, before Alderman Taylor, with assault and battery. It is charged that Fitzpatrick felt like "putting a head" on somebody, and he struck Ditmore with his fist.

Ditmore also made information before the same magistrate charging Fitzpatrick with surety of the peace. He alleged that Fitzpatrick did, without cause or provocation, threaten to break the plaintiff's neck, and is afraid he may carry his threat into execution. Committed to jail for a hearing on the 25th.

Coroner's Inquests Yesterday.

Coroner West yesterday held inquests in two cases, one on the body of George C. Nill, of whose accidental shooting by his brother we gave an account yesterday, in which the jury returned a verdict of accidental death, caused by a pistol in the hands of his brother.

In the other it was upon the body of a man named William Sheppard, employed at the Coal Works of Wood, Horner & Co., on the Monongahela river, opposite Hazelwood Station on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville railroad. The deceased and a boy had been engaged in floating a flat from the shore, when slipped and fell overboard. The boy raised an alarm immediately, and in a very short time the body was recovered. Although it was still warm, all efforts toward resuscitation were unavailing. A verdict of accidental drowning was rendered by the jury.

Mr. Sheppard was a sober and industrious man, aged forty-seven years and leaves a wife and three children.

Ye Olden Times.

A. W. H. McClelland, Secretary of the Pittsburgh Gas Company, has favored us with a very interesting old document, which contains the signatures of many who figured nearly three decades of years ago as our prominent citizens, the most of whom have gone down to their graves. The paper reads: "We the undersigned, manufacturers and citizens of the city of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity, hereby agree to pay our proportion of the expenses attending a complimentary supper to be given to the Hon. John Quincy Adams, at the Monongahela House on Saturday evening next, the 18th of November, 1843. QUADRENNIAL SESSION.

Grand Methodist Conference—Sixth Day—Morning Session.

Conference opened with religious exercises, conducted by J. H. Hamilton. Roll called and minutes read and approved.

The order of the day was suspended, for the purpose of receiving reports.

The report from the Committee on Temperance was adopted.

The petition from the North Carolina Conference, on the question of receiving members into the Church without baptism who have conscientious scruples on the subject, elicited considerable discussion. The final action was in harmony with the request of the petitioners.

The Executive Committee reported answers to a series of questions which had been referred to them. Among these was the question. "What relation do baptized children sustain to the Church?" After much discussion, the following paper, by T. B. Graham, was adopted as the action of the Conference: They should be recognized as probationary members, and under the watchful care of the Church, be received into full membership upon profession of faith.

The question should a person be re-baptized who has been baptized in infancy, and who conscientiously asks the ordinance in his maturer life? together with several others reported by the Executive Committee, were laid on the table.

John Scott, Chairman of the Book Concern Committee read his report. The report showed that the Concern is now worth two or three times its original cost. The assets are estimated at $23,500, while its liabilities are only $700. The Committee reported in favor of removing the "Concern" to Pittsburgh, and also recommended the establishing of a Book Depository at some central point in the East and one in the West.

Mr. Link, of the same Committee, read a minority report, recommending that the Book Concern remain in Springfield, Ohio. The subject of removal was made the order of the day to-day at nine o'clock.

J. W. Merrill, editor of the Western Christian Advocate, and also fraternal messenger from the M. E. Church to this Conference, and J. J. McIlyar, of the M. E. Church, were introduced and invited to honorary seats.

C. Gray, from the Committee on the Adrian Memorial, in reference to the change of place of holding the General Conference, reported a paper which excited some discussion. The report was laid on the table.

The President announced the following as the Committee on Examination of the Hymn Book: John Scott, T. B. Graham, T. B. Carpenter.

J. H. Hamilton, from the Committee on Ministerial Education, reported a paper, approving the work of J. B. Walker, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Ministerial Education, and making some suggestions as to the further management of the work.

After some discussion the report was referred to a special committee of three, consisting of Dr. Flood, Wm. Rinehart, and S. B. Smith, for revision, and the further consideration of the report was postponed until the new committee could have an opportunity of considering the matter.

Dr. Collier read the following letter:

RADICAL CITY,
MONTGOMERY, CO., KANSAS.

Dear Brethren of the General Conference, Methodist Church:

We greatly regret that it is impossible for us to meet you as representatives of the Kansas Conference, owing to circumstances over which we had no control. Up until this date one, if not both of us, designed to attend the General Conference. Praying that Great Head of the church, Jesus Christ our Lord, that you may have a harmonious session, ordain the "Lady Preacher," retain the name "Methodist," adopt the Baltimore Hymn Book, give us an efficient and thorough Itineracy, make it obligatory for preachers and members, who propose to become members of Annual Conferences, to cease the use of tobacco for ever, in case they use it, and if not, never to use it, we remain, yours in the bonds of Christian fraternity.

SAMUEL YOUNG,
F. W. JOHNSON.

Mr. Young was formerly a State Senator of West Virginia, but is now a resident of Kansas.

On motion Prof. Mahan was substituted on the Committee on Hymn Book in the place of Mr. Scott.

Conference adjourned with prayer by Rev. Mr. Robinson.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Conference was opened by religious services conducted by W. R. Kerr, of the North Carolina Conference.

Mr. John Burns, from the Judiciary Committee, presented the following items of business, which had been re-referred to them: What relation, if any, does a member or minister, with a letter of withdrawal in his hand, sustain to the church or Conference in which he was a member? Answer—None, unless the withdrawal is to avoid prosecution. After some discussion, the answer given by the committee on the question, was accepted and adopted.

The next item presented by the committee was the following: To whom is a minister of the Methodist Church, who has been left without an appointment by the Conference to which he belongs, and subsequently takes work within bounds of another Conference without a certificate of transfer or removal, responsible for his official conduct? Answer: To the Conference to which he belongs. A protracted discussion ensued on this question, after which it was referred to the Committee on Legislation.

The following items were then taken up from the Legislative Committee:

We recommend a change in one word in the second article of religion, substituting the words "original sin" for "original guilt, on page 25 of the Discipline.

The recommendation was adopted.

The next item which was also adopted, was to add the following to paragraph 2, page 74, of the discipline: If it be necessary, good moral men from without may be elected trustees, but a majority of the Board shall in all cases be members of the church.

After the adoption of several other items of discipline, the order of the day was announced, viz: The fraternal greetings of the delegation from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev's S. M. Merrill of the Western Christian Advocate, and J. G. Bruce, of the Kentucky Conference. These messengers were introduced to the Conference by a few touching remarks from the President, F. H. Pierpont.

The first address was by Mr. Bruce, and was a fervent, earnest and well-received argument for Methodistic union. He fully honored the organic rights of the Methodist Church, and of his own, and although he had no terms of union to propose, he thoroughly urged a continuance of fraternal intercourse between the branches, until, in God's good time, an honorable and harmonious union may be consummated. His remarks were received with great attention. His reference to the deaths of Bishops Thompson, Kingsley and Clark, were affecting.

Dr. Merrill followed. He emphasized the thought of christian unity, and, although according great influence to the spirit of union, he insisted upon the greater efficiency of Christ's church when organically united. He hoped that such discussion might be had upon all differences, that, ere long, there might be a mutual coming together in the activities of christian work, that the time is at hand when the methods as well as the aims and doctrines of the church shall be one and the same. He feared the results doctrinally, of continued separation of the Methodist families. He said that the opposition to Methodistism now are quite different from what they were in the time of our fashion.

He argued ably against the insidious and popular errors of the times which endangered the unity of doctrine in Methodistism, and claimed that the most effectual means of holding intact our common heritage, is to be more united in our modes and in our efforts in behalf of the cause of christianity. He insisted upon union from the fact that Rome is united and aggressive, and that the best hope of Protestantism to withstand the insinuating encroachments of the Papal power is in more organic union among the various branches of the Protestant churches. He concluded by urging the propriety of early and organic union, or principles of mutual rights as denominations.

Dr. Brown, who had been appointed with Dr. Collier, to respond, made such a response as only a true and christain heart could prompt, full of love, good will and hope. He chose not to recall the conflicts of the past, but rather to look forward to the openings of divine Providence, and was willing that in future time and in accordance with God's will, the separated parts of American Methodism should flow and commingle henceforward till the end of time.

He claimed that the Methodist Church had as much right to a free representative form of government as the United States, or as any state in the Union. The Methodist Episcopal Church was already beginning to adopt the same principle, and the signs of better times were brightening every hour. He congratulated the Methodist Episcopal Church upon its present earnest disposition to have a representative government.

He believed that if lay delegation should be carried into the Annual Conferences of the M. E. Church, and if the ordination were ignored there would be no further hindrances to organized union.

Dr. Collier followed with words of welcome to the delegation. He referred to the original controversy and was glad to know that at length our reformed Methodism has been received by the brethren of the M. E. Church. He made a warm appeal for union in due time and on principles of christian fraternity.

W. R. Parsons reported on the subject of Female Ordination. The report will come up for discussion.

C. W. Smith, of the M. E. Church, S. F. Crowther, and E. A. Brindley of the Methodist Church were introduced and invited to honorary seats.

Adjourned with Doxology, and prayer by Rev. S. M. Merrill.

DECORATION DAY.

Action of the Mayors of the Two Cities and Burgesses of Adjoining Boroughs—All Business Requested to be Suspended.

A meeting of the Mayors of the two cities and the Burgesses of the surrounding boroughs was held in the private office of Mayor Brush yesterday afternoon, to take action on the following resolution, passed at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Grand Army of the Republic:

HEADQUARTERS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE,
G. A. R., May 16, 1871.

At a meeting of the Committee held this day, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Mayors of the two cities and the Burgesses of the adjoining boroughs be respectfully requested to issue their proclamations calling on the citizens of this vicinity to suspend their various avocations on Memorial Day, in order that all may have an opportunity to participate in the ceremonies of Decoration and Dedication.

In accordance with the foregoing resolution the undersigned would respectfully and earnestly recommend the closing of all manufacturing establishments and other places of business on Tuesday, May 30th, to give all an opportunity to attend the ceremonies of decorating the graves of our departed braves, and also to dedicate the monument to their memory.

Signed by the Mayors of the two cities and the Burgesses of the surrounding boroughs.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE IN ALLEGHENY.

A Man Attempts to Hang Himself in an Out-House.

On Sunday evening a man named Herman Schumacher attempted to commit suicide by hanging himself in an out-house on his premises on Green street, near Madison avenue, Allegheny. It appears that he had only been discharged from the Workhouse on Saturday, and to celebrate his emancipation he commenced drinking. During Sunday he imbibed pretty largely and in the evening went out into the yard, and remaining out a considerable length of time, search was instituted for him. When found he was suspended by a rope attached to a rafter of an out-house. He was immediately cut down and a physician summoned, who applied restoratives by which the would be self-murderer was restored to consciousness, and his voyage to that undiscovered country for the present postponed.

CAPT. MITCHTNER, Chief of the Dead Letter Office, Washington City, was in the city on a brief visit.

EAST BIRMINGHAM COUNCILS held a special meeting last night to consider the supplement to the borough charter.

JUDGE STERRETT takes great interest in our Common Schools, and makes an excellent member of the Central Board.

GEN. PHIL SHERIDAN passed through the city yesterday, on his way to Chicago. He was accompanied by Gen. Forsyth.

THE Pittsburgh Barge Club were out last night in their beautiful barge "Alice," accompanied by a pleasant party of ladies.

THE German Church on the corner of Sixth avenue and Smithfield street is being cleaned. Judging from the outside, it needs it.

ADAM RINEY charged William Schlechte before Justice Krehan yesterday with malicious mischief. Fined five dollars and costs.

JACOB JACOBS was before Justice Krehan yesterday charged by Mary Casiett with going to her house and abusing her. Warrant issued.

A SQUAD of the "Cochran Zouaves," and the 1st Company of the "Smith Zouaves," were out last evening, in full uniform and made a fine appearance.

A NEW article of the cheap kind is labelled "every day soap." There can hardly be a large demand for it, as it is not everybody who uses soap every day.

JUSTICE KREHAN issued a warrant yesterday for the arrest of F. Buhrmann on information by Anna Buhrmann. There seems to be a coolness in the family.

WHY don't they finish the Third Presbyterian Church? If Mr. Albree would bring down a squad from the Work House it could be finished by them in a year.

ARTIFICIAL butterflies, manufactured in gold and jewels, jet, and other materials, are conspicuous among the displays of summer ornaments set forth by jewelers.

A CONVENTION of Railroad Superintendents is in session in this city to arrange a new time table for the several roads which will go into operation about two weeks hence.

COL. PHILLIPS don't know whether to run for Congress or not. He is afraid if he would go to Washington some scamps would steal the Valley road from him, and death from a broken heart would be the coroners verdict.

WE notice that a large consignment of silver ore from the mines of Utah, owned by R. J. Anderson, Esq., of this city, passed through Pittsburgh yesterday in transit to New York.

THE Fire Commissioners are regular iconoclasts. Not content with dismantling some of the "machines," they now talk of selling out some of the haunts. Such is progress.

RUMOR says that some up town boys continue to bath in the Upper Basin. The citizens don't care so long as they scrub themselves daily, but they do object to those who visit the place once a week as the accumulated dirt has a bad effect on weak stomachs.

THE Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America will meet this Wednesday evening, at 7½ o'clock, in the Eighth street Church (Rev. A. M. Milligan's), Pittsburgh, and will be opened with a sermon by the retiring Moderator, Rev. J. C. Milligan, of New York city.

THE Court-Martial trial of Brigadier General McLanahan commenced last evening at Division Headquarters in the armory of the Duquesne Greys. No evidence was adduced last night, the court only organizing and receiving the charges. The trial will be continued this evening.

HON. MILES S. HUMPHREYS, familiarly known throughout the State as the "puddler statesman," is announced as a candidate for the State Senate. If elected, and we have no doubt but that he will be, he will make an honored and faithful representative of the people and a fearless champion for the right. Success to him.

A REQUEST, in writing, by two-thirds of the stockholders in the interest of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh road, has been made upon the President, Mr. McCulloch, for a special meeting of the Directors, to act upon the subject of an extra dividend, in scrip, on the stock, and it is stated that such a meeting will be held in New York May 30.

ON Monday Mr. John Patton, janitor of the Fourth ward public school, was presented with a silver-headed cane by the members of the R. P. Church of this city. This congregation formerly worshiped in the school house of this ward, and we suppose it is a gift for the manner in which the venerable janitor attended to his Sabbath day duties.

WE understand the friends of B. F. Kennedy, Esq., are urging him to run for Sheriff as successor to Sheriff Fleming. We don't suppose Mr. Kennedy would like to let go of his already large and growing practice, but we do know he would fill the position satisfactorily to all, and no man in the county would receive our hearty support for the position sooner than Mr. Kennedy.

THE citizens of Sewickley intend observing Decoration Day in an appropriate manner, and appointed the following Committee of Arrangements: Misses Agnes Stephenson, Hanna Nevin, Mary Thompson, Tillie McKelvey, Jennie Miller, Helen White, Messrs. Lee R. Smith, Charles Nevin, John Kerr, Sam McKelvey, Jr., Ed Kramer, Will Ague, to see that suitable arrangements are made.

IN THE feathered race, as in the human, song-birds fluctuate in value according to circumstances. Ten years ago a mocking-bird of good accomplishments was worth $50 in Pittsburgh. The demand for this prince of song-birds is greater now than it was then, and yet a first-class one can be had for $20. The difference is owing to improved facilities for procuring these birds.

NOTWITHSTANDING the exertions of our excellent Chief of Police to suppress the gambling establishments, there is no apparent diminution in the number of leisurely young men who certainly make their living in no other way than by fishing on the banks of the rushing Faro. A further and more thorough Kelsomining process will be necessary before the stains referred to are effectually whitewashed out.

THE COURTS.

Delightful Entertainment.

Another of those delightful Literary and Musical entertainments from which our readers and public generally derive so much real pleasure, will be given in the Chapel of the Pittsburgh Female College, on Friday evening of the present week. The programme embraces essays, recitations, select readings and vocal and instrumental music. The young ladies who are to take part have been preparing for some time, and expect to more than satisfy their friends. While their literary performances will be of great interest, the principal attraction will be the musical part of the entertainment. Heretofore the pupils have more than satisfied their friends in this regard, but it is believed that on this occassion they will be ahead of anything previously done in this line. The choir of Christ Church will participate, and some rare musical gems will be produced in brilliant style. The entertainment will furnish to persons of taste and culture an occasion of real enjoyment, and the Chapel will doubtless be filled to repletion. Tickets can be had at the music and book stores, and at the door on the evening of the entertainment.

Stock Sales.

The following stocks were sold las evening by A. McIlwaine, Auctioneer, on the second floor of his auction rooms, 106 Smithfield street:

Exchange National Bank	$72 12½
M. & M. National Bank	71 50

EAST BIRMINGHAM COUNCIL.

Wooden Pavement or Cobble Stones—Decoration Day.

The town Council of East Birmingham, held an adjourned meeting at the Hall of the Walton Engine Company last evening.

Members present—Messrs. Diehl, Hahne, Habermann, Ihmsen, N. Jones, Wharton and Burgess J. Jones, in the chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Burgess Jones stated that this was an adjourned meeting, held for the purpose of considering the ordinance for paving Sarah street, and to settle the mixed question whether it shall be paved with cobble stones or wood.

Mr. N. Jones, chairman of the Street Committee, presented a petition signed by sixty-three persons owning property on Sarah street, asking for cobble stone pavement, the sixty-three signers representing 2,650 feet of front on the street.

Mr. Ihmsen stated that several names on the petition for cobble stone, were in favor of wooden pavement.

The clerk then read the petition for wooden pavement, signed by thirty-four property owners.

Mr. N. Jones then moved that the petitions for cobble stone pavements be accepted, and an ordinance be drawn up providing for the paving of Sarah street with cobble stones.

After considerable discussion on the motion Mr. Ihmsen read a communication from business men on Wood street in favor of the wood pavement, which recommended all boroughs to pave their streets with wooden pavements. One man on Wood street stated that since the wooden pavement was put down on that street the increase of rents from his property in one year paid one-half of the assessment for paving.

Considerable dispute arose here about the signatures to the different petitions, each party claiming certain parties names to their petitions, and it seems that several property owners had their names signed by proxy, which proved to be a point of dissatisfaction.

Mr. Haberman moved that the whole matter be deferred until next Friday evening, when a special meeting shall be held, in order to get both petitions for wooden pavement and for cobble stone pavement signed properly by the property owners.

Mr. Wharton thought it would be better to postpone the matter to hear anew the wishes of the property owners as to whether they want wooden or cobble stone pavement.

Mr. Haberman's motion was then carried.

Mr. Ihmsen called up the report of the Sewer Commissioners on the Twentieth street sewer, which was previously presented. The report was read and on motion referred back to the Commissioners, they to be informed as to the objectionable points in the report.

A petition for a gas lamp at the corner of Twenty-third and Jane streets, was read and the lamp ordered to be erected.

A communication was read from the Grand Army of the Republic, inviting the Burgess and Council to participate in Decoration Day ceremonies. Accepted.

The supplement to the charter as passed by the Assembly was read.

Mr. Haberman presented the final settlement of the retiring clerk, Mr. J. W. Patterson, Jr., with the Finance Committee. Accepted and filed.

On motion adjourned.

ALMOST A SUICIDE.

An Old Man from Oil City Intends to Die, but Changes his Mind.

Quite an excitement was occasioned at the Robinson House, Duquesne Way, yesterday, by an old gentleman from Oil City trying to commit suicide. The facts as near as we could learn them, are as follows: On Monday a gentleman engaged in the oil business, aged about sixty, arrived from Oil City, and put up at this house. He was given a room, and nothing strange was noticed about him. He ate his supper and retired for the evening as others in the house did. About two o'clock Tuesday morning, he came down stairs, walked into the office, and remarked to the night clerk that he thought it was near morning. The clerk observed nothing peculiar and paid no attention to him. He then passed out, and in about an hour returned as wet as a drowned cat. The clerk aroused some of the boarders and took the old gentleman to his room. They then started to the river, and found that he had tied one end of a clothes line to an old steam boat, the other end around his body, and jumped into the river for the purpose of drowning himself. After returning to the hotel the old gentleman confessed that he had intended to commit suicide, and gave as a reason that he had lost heavily in some speculations, and being tired of life had concluded to end it by drowning himself, and in order that his body might be found easily, he had bought this rope and tied himself as above stated, but when he jumped into the river he changed his mind and pulled himself out by it. In his pockets were found several letters concerning his business, and one addressed to his family, stating that he would like to live for his wife and daughter's sake, as he loved them and he believed they loved him, but his head was bursting and his heart breaking with trouble.

The old gentleman says he don't remember going to the river, but remembers pulling himself out of the water. The fact that he had prepared the rope and written these letters would show conclusively that he had intended committing suicide. We understand he was taken charge of by some friends in or near the city, who will send him home to his family.

General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church.

FIFTH DAY—MORNING.

Synod resumed business in the Fourth Church, Philadelphia, on Monday morning at ten o'clock.

Mr. Jas. N. Gifford asked for and was granted leave of absence for the remainder of the session.

Mr. Joseph H. Schreiner, General Agent of the Philadelphia Tract and Missionary Society, then gave a resume of the working of said organization. A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Schreiner, and it was resolved that his society meet with favorable recommendation.

The report of the Board of Superintendence of the Theological Seminary was presented and received.

The following have been raised to Licentiates; Messrs. Stewart, Yates, Graham, Hazel and Smiley. Mr. Wylie has been advanced to the third year, and Messrs. Hunter and Young to the second.

The Committee on Nominations recommended that Hugh McCollum, Jr., be continued Treasurer of the Board of Domestic Missions, and that he, with the following members of the Board, form the Executive Committee: Revs. J. Y. Boice, J. F. Morton and Messrs. Peter Gibson and Samuel Dallas, Ruling Elders.

The report was adopted.

The following resolutions were presented by the Committee on the Memorial of the Presbytery and Historical Society:

Resolved, That the works and life of John Knox, the organizer of the first Presbytery in England, and the Martyrdom of "St. Bartholomew's Day" whose three hundredth anniversary occurs in 1872, are matters of great interest, worthy of being held in perpetual remembrance.

Resolved, That the Reformed Presbyterian Church represented in General Synod, return their devout thanks to God this day for the life and labors of the great Scottish Reformer, the blessed influence of which is still felt, not only in the place of his birth, but also in our own country and throughout the world.

Resolved, That the present condition of France in general, as desolated by the storm of war, and of the city of Paris in particular, as now drenched by the blood of her own citizens, is a righteous retribution for the martyrdom of "St. Bartholomew's Day," and a tangible fulfillment of the Divine promise to the Church—"No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper."

Resolved, That Synod appoint a committee of three to prepare a programme of exercises in commemoration of the Tri-Centenary, to which their attention has been called by the Presbyterian Historical Society, at their next meeting in 1872, and that such be published in due season for the information of the Church.

The resolutions were adapted, and in accordance with the second one, Rev. Dr. Wilson, made a thanksgiving prayer.

Rev. Samuel Young and Messrs. Peter Gibson and Henry Irwin were, on motion, appointed as a committee to make a report in reference to church property which may be in danger by the secession of a portion of the church.

On motion the committee was increased by the addition of one member from each presbytery.

A report was presented from the special committee on the late action of the Pittsburgh Presbytery in granting certificates to two congregations, on their own request, to connect themselves with the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church. A series of resolutions, censuring the Presbytery and sustaining the protest of the minority, was appended. The whole was received and adopted unanimously.

The report of the Treasurer of the Board of Foreign Missions was presented, but, being incomplete, it was laid on the table.

On motion, the Synod then adjourned until 3 o'clock.

Commemoration Day.

A meeting of the Finance Committee appointed by the various Posts of the G. A. R. was held in the private office of Postmaster Stewart on Monday evening.

The meeting organized by calling Col. Stewart to the chair and appointing Captain Dalgleish Secretary.

On motion, it was resolved to divide into sub-committees, whereupon the following division was made; Colonel J. H. Stewart, Hon. Thomas Howard and Captain Dalgleish were assigned to that portion of the city south of Wood and Liberty streets.

Dr. Gross and Major J. H. Magregor were assigned to that portion of the city north of Wood and Liberty streets.

Mayor Callow, Colonel Schoonmaker, Alex. Patterson and John Megraw were appointed to the north side of the Allegheny.

Capt. W. M. Felker and S. D. McLain to the south side of the rivers.

The citizens in the several districts are requested to send their subscriptions to these gentlemen, and we hope they will be liberal and prompt in their action.

The Executive Committee and Finance Committee will hold a joint meeting at the office of Major Montooth, this evening, to complete arrangements.

FIRE IN ALLEGHENY.

Loss $1,500—Insured for $2,500.

A little after four o'clock yesterday evening flames were seen to issue from the two story brick house adjoining the feed store of Mr. John Hickman on Third street, Allegheny. The building was used by Mr. Hickman as a store house and contained hay, straw and flour and other provender. An alarm was struck and the Department at once responded, and by their timely and efficient exertions prevented an extensive fire. Twenty bales of hay, twenty or thirty barrels of flour, some barrels of salt and a lot of straw were entirely destroyed. The destruction of the salt was occasioned by water.

The fire was caused by some boys throwing a match with which they had lighted a pipe carelessly in among the hay. Loss on stock and building will amount to about $1,500, upon which there is an insurance of $2,500 in the Pennsylvania Insurance Company.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—The best and largest audience that has been in attendance at the New Opera House for a long time past was present last night. The exciting war drama of "Jartine," written expressly for the versatile M'lle Ravel, was admirably put on the stage and merited and received the most hearty applause throughout. The play is well worthy a visit.

TRIMBLES VARIETIES.—This house was, as usual, crowded last night and the new stars made a decided hit. The singing, dancing and other specialties were fully up to anything hitherto presented by Mr. Aims, and saying this we say about as much as possible, for the fact has been potent to all patrons of the establishment, that Mr. Aims' "show" has been fully equal to any similar entertainment in the country. A fine bill is offered for to-night.

ALMOST HERE.—The grand caravan and the great circus of Adam Forepaugh will reach Pittsburgh to-morrow morning. The cavalcade will leave East Liberty at about seven and arrive here at about half-past eight o'clock. It will move over the following route: From East Liberty to Forty-fourth street, and thence through Penn, Ninth, Liberty, Smithfield, Sixth, Grant, Wylie, Elm, Fourth street Road, Ross and Second streets to Smithfield, and thence up Fifth avenue on to Marion, Second, Pitt and St. Clair streets, and across the suspension bridge to Allegheny City on to Federal, Ohio, West and Second streets and to the Park grounds, where exhibitions will be given afternoon and evening, opening at 1 and 7 P. M., and commencing one hour later in the circus tent. It will remain but three days at the Union Skating Park grounds, and all our readers who desire to see the largest menagerie and the finest circus in the world should avail themselves of the opportunity offered by the advent of this unapproachable organization.

LIBRARY HALL.—There was a large and thoroughly apreciative audience in attendance last night at Library Hall on the occasion of the second art exposition and entertainment afforded by Prof. Cromwell. We need not say that all were thoroughly pleased, delighted and enraptured. The local sketches furnished were a faithful portrait of Rev. Dr. Howard and a picture of the Grain Elevator—both familiar subjects. The sketches of art and scenery were very fine. Altogether we regard these entertainments as the noblest, most elevating and instructing ever afforded our people. The Professor explains just what every one wishes to know who has not visited foreign countries, and refreshes the minds of those who have, in a manner that is intensely interesting. One lives in the land of art, surrounded with exquisite works of sculpture and paintings, among the grand mountains of the Alps, in the eternal city of Rome, on the banks of the world-renowned Rhine, in the proud city of Paris as it was in the beauty and grandeur of the days of the grandest exhibition the world ever knew—among the pyramids of Egypt, and great volcanoes, and a thousand things the pen cannot do justice to, and must be witnessed to be appreciated.

Y. M. C. T. A.

The regular weekly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Temperance Association was held at their hall on Duquesne Way last evening at 7½ o'clock. In the absence of President Carr, Rev. Mr. Long occupied the chair. Joseph Stewart acted as Secretary. After the singing of a temperance hymn, the opening prayer was made by William H. Knox. Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved, after which Rev. Mr. Whitney was introduced and proceeded to deliver a very able and appropriate address.

He was followed by T. J. Gillespie, who demonstrated in an exceedingly lucid manner that the wine recommended in the Bible was non-intoxicating and a perfectly harmless beverage.

W. H. Knox, being called upon, spoke briefly, urging those present to decide this great question at once. He contrasted the drunkard's life with that of the temperate man, and urged an immediate choice between the two.

At this stage of the proceedings a large delegation of Good Templars entered, some of whom being called for, responded in appropriate remarks.

After a few words from Rev. Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Thomas Jones addressed the meeting. He gave a short history of his own life, stating that four years ago he was one of the greatest drunkards in the city and a disgrace and by-word. Since then he had signed the pledge, and never touched, tasted or handled anything that intoxicates.

The meeting was then brought to a close by singing of the Doxology and benediction by Rev. Mr. Kennedy.

After the meeting was dismissed, quite a large number came forward and signed the pledge.

We are glad of the marked success of this live organization, and are glad to learn that since its organization, which is only a short time ago, nine hundred and fifty are inscribed on its roll, having signed the pledge.

Pianos and Organs

Are still being sold at S. Hamilton & Co.'s, at the same rapid rate that has heretofore caused such surprise among many who are familiar with the music trade; but the reason is obvious when it is known that their business is exclusively pianos and organs, of which they always have such a large and well selected stock, that people rarely ever come away without buying either piano or organ from them, because in addition to the undisputed fact, that they can and do sell lower than any other house in the city, is the well known honesty and integrity of the proprietors, who have been known among us all their lives, and whose long experience in the piano and organ business, certainly qualifies them to know where and what to buy. They have therefore adopted the rule to sell nothing they can not guarantee, which will certainly prove most profitable in the end, as they are comparatively young men; and to associate their names and reputation with an inferior article now, would be ruinous to their business prospects for the future; and to assure our readers of the correctness of our remarks, we have only to say that they are sole agents for such instruments as the old standard Taylor & Farley Organs, which for power, purity and variety of tone, are unequalled by any Reed Organ made, and the Decker & Barnes' new Patent Pin Block Piano, Cramer & Co. and Bradford & Co. Piano, any of which will be sold at the same low rates and on terms to suit purchasers, old instruments taken in exchange for new ones, and every instrument is fully warranted. Special rates to churches and Sabbath Schools. So our advice to all in need of instruments, is be sure and call on or address

BROWNSVILLE, PA.

Grain and Fruit Prospects.

[Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

I have recently been out into the country in different directions from Brownsville, into both Washington and Fayette counties, and I am happy to say that I have never seen better prospects for an abundant harvest. The meadows and clover fields could not put in a better appearance than they do at the present time. The wheat fields are looking finely. The prospects are that the crop will be abundant. I do not remember seeing any rye. Where the distillers of this valley get rye to make what they call "rye whiskey" I do not know. My opinion is they get but little, if any, and that real rye whiskey is a scarce article. Spring grains, such as oats, corn, &c., are coming on very nicely. Corn is not forward as some years. It has been too cold since planting time. Potatoes are looking well generally. Gardens are in good condition. The opinions and reports in regard to fruit, such as apples, peaches, pears, plums, cherries, &c., are somewhat conflicting. Frosts have been frequent during the spring months, and no doubt some orchards have suffered, especially those on low lands; but I think we are safe in hoping for a moderate supply, unless destroyed hereafter, especially of apples and cherries. I have seen trees of both in different localities literally loaded. The indications for peaches, plums, &c., are not so good. The indications are favorable for a good berry harvest. We have good reason to be both hopeful and thankful. The ancient promise of seed-time and harvest has never yet failed. They who do their part of life's duties are not likely to come to actual want. Raphael's Birthplace.

The house in which Raphael was born, having on one of its walls a fresco, painted by his father, representing the child Raphael sleeping in his mother's arms—all this, and the "good will," and the "associations"—are offered for $5,000. Anne Brewester writes to the Boston Advertiser about it: "The Raphael Academy at Urbino wishes to own this valuable relic, 'this monument which Urbino possesses, and which is national,' as the printed plan of purchase says. The price asked by Signor Albini is 25,000 francs, only $5,000 of our money: but Italy and Italians are poor in cash. The academicians had no such sum, so they have engaged Signor Albini to wait until 1872 for the payment. In the meanwhile they have opened a subscription, and are inviting everyone to help. The Minister of Public Instruction of the Italian Government has subscribed 1,000 francs. Every subscriber is to receive a pamphlet containing a description and history of the house, and an engraving of Giovanni Santi's fresco, and a list of subscribers' names. To those persons who distinguish themselves by sending a very large subscription sum, the academy will decree a special honorary distinction. A marble inscription is to be placed on the building to commemorate the solemn event. The municipality of Milan has subscribed 100 francs. The the Academy of Arts 200 francs; this, with some small subscriptions from private individuals, brings up tee purchase fund as far as 2,675 francs.

A Sea Captain's Humane Act Punished.

The Liberal Christian has the following anecdote from a gentleman who was an eye-witness of the circumstance narrated:

The thermometor often stands for days at from 110 to 117 degrees in the Red Sea, and when the vessel is with the wind, and traveling at about the speed of the air, the lack of any breeze or ventilation makes life on the steamer almost insupportable. On this occasion four men and two women among the passengers were so overcome with the heat that the ship's doctor reported that they must die if the ship's course were not changed and a breeze created by traveling against the wind. The captain very reluctantly, and in dire fear of his company's orders, yielded to the cry of humanity, and steamed one hundred miles back on his course. He thus reduced the oppressive temperature twenty degrees, ventilated his ship, and saved the lives (probably) of six passengers. The Government fined the company (who excused the captain, although not without a warning not to do it again) a thousand pounds for going out of the prescribed route with her Majesty's mails.

JOHN W. FORNEY, in his sketches of the Public men of his time, stops in his biography to thus truthfully sermonize:

Work without amusement is a sure preparation for death; the brain, like the body, must have rest, and when either is overworked, it is like the taper that goes out for want of oil. There is no sight more painful than the incessant occupation of public men, whether statesman, scholars, editors, railroad officers, divines, or mechanics, who, misled by the fatal idea that a labor of love may be pursued without pause or repose, discard all relaxation and end either in sudden death, or what is worse, premature decay. There is no class of what may be called public men who live a longer average life than the actors, and why? Because, however hard they may work, they alternate work with pleasure. In fact, their work itself is pleasure. The philosophy of it consists perhaps in the romance of their profession that while they are personating the past and depicturing art they are separated from the hard realism of the outer world; but whatever it may be, we are taught one lesson—that no man can enjoy real happiness without occasional recreation and freedom from care.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal is troubling itself vastly about the spelling of Binghamton, giving a piece of its mind to those persons who persist in spelling it with a "p." That old, old story, about Buffalop, has at last reached Louisville and when the Courier-Journal man heard it his inmost soul was stirred in sympathy for the Binghamtonians, and, after carefully dropping a scalding tear, he donned his armor and gallantly entered the lists in their behalf——Still, while defending them he might have had enough charity towards the rest of us to have spared us from a repetition of the Buffalo*p* story.

A Surprise.

The Chicago Tribune says: The Times sensationalist has been beautifully sold. In that paper of yesterday appeared an ominous paragraph, headed "Probable Suicide," and going into details of how A. W. Pollard, a saloon keeper, at No. 873 West Lake street, had blown out his brains with a Smith & Wesson revolver.

The news of the sad event was borne up the back stairs of the Times office by Bailiff A. C. Williams. The latter, while proceeding homeward, on Wednesday night, found the prostrate body of a man at the west end of Randolph street bridge. To all appearances the party was dead (drunk), and Williams had him sent to some place indefinitely termed "the Morgue." Out of this information came the harrowing story of suicide.

Yesterday morning Pollard's wife arose, and wondering what had become of her husband, chanced to look at the paper mentioned, and there saw the fatal news of her partner's demise. The good wife fainted immediately, and on recovering consciousness, filled the surrounding atmosphere with her lamentations. Having expended the volume of her grief, she resolved at once to recover the dear remains, and hired an express wagon to convey the defunct Pollard to his bereaved home. Mrs. Pollard called on Officer Grady, who lives within a few doors of her to assist in finding the prospective corpse. The gallant star complied, and forth they went on their errand of woe.

Near the corner of Union street, Grady was startled by a prolonged shriek which issued from the lungs of the widow. He followed the direction of her starting eyeballs and trembling index finger. There, on the sidewalk, walking as well as the expiring glories of a long drunk would permit him, came the late-lamented Pollard. The Times' corpse had come home to roost, and there was joy on West Lake street. The express wagon was dismissed, and the reunited pair walked gayly home, Pollard's joy in some measure diminished by the anticipation of a wholesome curtain lecture.
